Why he made a speech of twenty minutes is the President. This assertion has been indigeneed to the case of th mons? Why he made a speech of twenty minutes length in the Supreme Court, timed by the watch of the Judge! Farmers—Mechanics—Workingmen!—what do you think of that kind of remuneration? It seems that Mr. Forward and A. W. Loomis, Esq., were engaged on opposite sides, in a matter pertaining to streets in the new Wards; and so trivial was the matter, that the learned ted to the cabinet, and are executed by that body. We have heretofore cited many facts conclusively proving our assertion, and among them the declarations of Gen. Taylor to that effect. And we now say that, recently, in conversations not only to say what he had to say; and they did not tres with democrats, but with his own political friends who have remonstrated with him in relation to the conduct of the cabinet, he substantially avowed that he had nothing to do with their action then fifty dollars, and considered himself well paid. The late downward tendency in the Corn market has been checked. A slight advance has taken place—the unfavorable reports of the potato discass caused the reaction. The hop picking in England has proved disastrous. One great effort was made. A favorable change has taken place in the mortality from Cholera throughout the entire of England; the number of cases has declined one half. Since the commencement of the disease, 13,000 have been IRELAND.

The potato disease, beyond doubt, is extending into several districts, though it has not by any means become general. A good deal of attention is directed to the Metropolitan Council of the Clergy, which has commenced its sittings in Paris. Almost all the Bishops, dislistinguished Clorgymen in France are assisting in the Council. The Cholera seems to have been permanently diminished in Paris. The Russian General had arrived at Constantinople, his mission being to bully the Sultan into compliance with their demands. The Sultan into compliance with their demands. The Austrian Consul stood true, refusing concessions.—

The Turkish Government resolved not to surrender the refugees to either the Russian or the Austrian government. On this decision being communicated to the Sultan, he declared in the most impressive style that the refugees should not be given up, let the consequences be what they might. "We trust," says a leading London paper, "that Lord Palmerston will do his duty as well as the Sultan, and that war with Turkey for such a cause means war with England.
