The "Four Cents" Outrage. We have heard words spoken to the effect tha after the election the "Four Cents Tax" is to be re formed out of the Pittsburgh Post Office. Mr. Collamer has been requested to withdraw his instruc tions to Roseburg on the subject.

We have all along thought that public opinio an outrage so barefaced-and at the same time so W. Fleming : many months. But it will be curious to watch the effects which a change will work. Either the Gazette or Journal will have the job. It is well known that the editors of these papers have no sincere friendship for the Administration, and only hang on for the fat that they hope to fry out of it. If the Gazette gets the list, the Journal will fly off the handle, and vice But it has been suggested that both papers will be retained as publishers. In which case, the Government—that is to say, the whole people—will be taxed for one half the amount. The letter recipients will be taxed two cents for each letter-Uncle Sam will pay the additional coppers required for the sustenance of the Whig papers. Will this make the matter better? We think not. It is taking from the people indirectly what they dare not take directly. The only difference will be that all will be taxed then, instead of a few. But the enormity of the offence does not consist in the amount of money taken from the people. We complain that the people are taxed for the purpose of keeping Whig editors in the traces. We contend be driven without the pale of decent society. The proposition to make the Government pay one half the price of advertising in two papers, will receive no more favor than the present system. We shall continue to denounce this evidence of political prostitution until the public can obtain ample redress. We have no desire to injure Collamer or his placed in the high places in our government.

cautiful Illustration of the Operations of the Tariff of 1840

In his last letter to the Washington Union "PREN TICE," the well-informed New York correspondent of that excellent paper, gives a most beautiful and practical illustration of the operations of the Revoue Tariff of 1846. He says :- "The large and unsaual profits now being earned by chartered capital re evidence, however, of the prosperity of the proactive powers of the country under the financial nd commercial policy which has been in operation roductive of the most favorable results both upon the business of the country and the revenues of the government. The exports of the United States are imost altogether raw produce, and the quantities that go forward depend mon the demand abroad. an unusual quantity of food, by so much must the OLD CROKER spoke as follows:mportation of English goods increase in payment of the food. It is usually the case that, when she wants food, prices of her own goods fall, and the Inited States consumer gets more cloth for his produce in the double ratio of the rise in food and fall n fabrics. Thus if a certain quality of cloth is worth Os per piece when flour is worth 25s, and through ailure in the crop the latter rises to 35s, and the louble the quantity of cloth for the same quantity of flour. The revenues of the government will be greater, and yet the average tax per piece no more. Thus pieces at 10s are equal to a barrel of flour at 25s. ve pieces at 7s are equal to a barrel of flour at 35s. At 30 per cent duty the government revenues in the latter case would be 10s against 7s in the former, and the consumer has the benefit of the fall in price. On the other hand, if the price abroad advances, less will be imported; because in that case, it can be nore cheaply furnished at home. The ad valorem duty, operating upon the higher invoice value, gives the government its usual revenue under a lessened mportation; whereas, in the case of specific duties, when the quantity imported is diminished by too high prices abroad, the government loses its revenue and resorts to borrowing. In the present year the invoice values and government revenues are both large; the latter probably more so than would be the case if the duties were specific. The amount of duties collected is evidence that the system does not easily admit of fraud or evasion; although the wretched condition of the customs now, through the hot haste with which experienced officers were discharged and ignorant and incapable men substituted, s disastrous to the public interests."

Old Snake. The Whigs charging poor men the Four Cents Letter Tax, reminds me of a story I heard in Ireland. Of course the incidents occurred before St. Patrick drove the Snakes out of the country. In the county Galway there is a Loch on th top of a mountain, and a pretty bit of water it is. Well, around the margin of this Loch lived a great many frogs, and a happy set of fellows they were, for the last three years. The ad valorem principle for French travellers never found their way to of the tariff is of all others the most judicious, and that remote part of Ireland. The frogs became proud and determined to have a king. They applied to St. Patrick, and he sent them two candidates; the one was a Trout, and the other a divil of a big Serpent. The frogs were no little pleased The importations in the United States are, on the with the looks of the rivals, and they deputed an other hand, confined mostly to the returns of pro- an old fellow, who had croaked for twenty years, luce sold. I will take care of the rich and fat citizens, and protect them against the inroads and competition of a set of starving frogs in the county Tipperary; for I hate the Tipperary frogs worse than Old Nick, my grand daddy! FAVETTE MANUFACTURING COMPANY .-- We have before briefly referred to this new estal We visited the warehouse, No. 112 Second Stree yesterday, and are now propared to give a more ex ended notice of the operations of the company. The company was organized during the summer, under the lately enacted general manufacturing law of this state, and the buildings were at once erected n New Haven, a small village opposite Concilsville in Fayette county. The machinery has been run ning for about two months. About sixty men are em ployed at the works. The view of the entire establishment as given in lithograph, on a card just issued exhibits in some degree the greatness of the under taking. The amount of capital which has been expended must have been immense. The site was se lected with a view to its local advantages for the stockholders are all citizens of this county-men interested in the prosperity of our cities, and the rather agreeable. credit which attaches to the success of the enterprise s altogether due to Allegheny. The company intend manufacturing Family an Steam Boat Blankets, Satinets, Cassimeres, While and Blue Mixed Woolen Yarn and Blanket Coatings. Specimens of the Family and Steamboat Blanket were shown us yesterday at the warehouse. If we can judge of the excellence of any article in the dry goods line, we can say without hesitation that the blankets shown to us are superior to any ever offered in this city. As to prices there can be no question. The F. M. Co. can and will sell at mucl lower rates than the merchants who purchase in the east. We do not say this for the purpose of giving the proprietors an agreeable puff, but because w firmly believe such to be the fact. The company buys wool of all grades and all tha is offered in this city. They have made several heavy purchases lately. We understand that in a few days they will open a store for a wholesale and retail trade, in Marke

We have written so much in relation to this er tablishment in order to show what can be done by our citizens in the way of manufacturing. And we urge those especially who take a deep interest in the encouragement of home industry to come up to the support of the Payette Manufacturing Company. a printer who had travelled with him for having stoen his carpet bag. The poor typo was arrested and kept in the Tombe till late in the evening, when the Mayor became satisfied that he was innocent, and discharged him. We have since learned that laring the day the prosecutor was seen lying on the street drunk, and his carpot bag a short distance from him. As it was sober it is supposed it became ashamed of its company and left. At a meeting of the "Hibernia Greens" held on Saturday evening last, Capt. Dougherty in the Chair, a set of Resolutions was offered by Capt. Porter, in relation to the decease of Capt Thomas J.

Loesser, of Reading, who served in the war with Mexico. The report was unanimously adopted. An appropriation from the funds of the company, for the appropriation from the funds of the company, for the purpose of aiding in the erection of a monument to the memory of Capt. L. was voted. Ber There was a great excitement at the Canal yesterday. On account of the rise of the water in the canal, the boats that have been aground for weeks past, were put affoat and all rushed into the Basin since Saturday. There were nearly one hundred yesterday making desperate efforts to get through the crowd. Of course the basin from the hill to the Aqueduct was choked up. Committee.-The man Rose, who was arrested

FRAUD-A case of some interest was disposed of elore Alderman Steele, yesterday. Some time ago Mr. John Hays, Druggist, Liberty street, gave a note for $100 to a man whose name we forget. Afterwards the parties met in Baltimore, and Mr. H. paid the note, the other person asserting that it was lost. He gave his receipt for the money. Mr. Hays then eft for the Lead Mines, and during his absence he was sued on the note and judgment obtained in default. But he arrived here in time to detect the villainy, and yesterday the fraud was discovered,-The raccal got off some how. STREET SPEAKING .- Mr. Layng's Ordinance,
