ASTONISHING CURE OF ERVEIPLAS OF SIXTEEN IT AS STANDING.—Mr. Exerett—Sir: This is to relife that I have been afflicted with the Erysipelas it sixteen years; during that time I have employed any-of our most eminent physicians and have spent arge amount of money, but continued to get worse itly, until last February, I was brought to my bed diver up by my physicians. I had become so re and swellen, that I could not base my clothes i me, and had lain in that situation for four or five ecks, in such pain that I could not sleep; nor uld I get any ease from any medicine that physians could give me. I also applied sweet cream, that was too severe. About April, I heard of the merican Oil. I procured a bottle and commenced ing it, by bathing and taking it internally; and in a than one week I could walk eight or tensquares, two weeks I was perfectly restored. I still conue well. It has been used in the family where I and for rheumatism, and for weak and inflamed to eyes, and proved an effectual cure. I would commend all that are afflicted to give it a trial.

Letter of the Rev. R. Caldwell, Pastor of the Presbyterian

Messas: Hendershort & Streetch: Gentlemen—I take pleasure in adding my testimony in favor of the excellent preparation called Dr. Parist's Chinese Haw Cream; for, about two years ago my hair was very dry, pristly, and disposed to come out; bur having procured a bottle of the Cream, and used it according to the prescription, it is now clastic, soft, and firm to the head: Hany belsams and oils were applied, each leaving my hair in a worse state than before. This Cream, however, has met my expectations. rket street, between Front and Second streets, erisigned would respectfully inform his triends stomers that he has just received a splendid of CLOTHS, CASSIMERES and VEST-Catalogues will be rendy October 8th.
