SUNDAY NIGHT. Our streets were full of confi sion on Sunday night. There was a firemen's fight in Third street between the Vigilant and Eagle, in which sundry persons got braises and cracks. There sales of common State and mixed. Western at $4,6,7 was a broil in Smithfield street, between Fifth and Virgin alley, in which claret was shed. There were no arreats by the watchmen, but indignations $55,3165,75. were no arrests by the watchmen, but informations will be made no doubt. The night police were hurried "hither and thither?" on one occasion, by some evil disposed person who beat a mace. After the cheat was discovered the watchmen quietly returned to their rounds. A RUINED FAMILY.—Before the Mayor appeared a Father, Mother, and son, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, in their house on High street. The old man was sent up for 24 hours, the mother and son for 30 days each. Another son is now in prison for stealing a cow. Along with the mother yesterday morning was a bright eyed, but ragged little boy about eight years of age. He seemed full of affliction for his degraded parents, while they did not seem to need his practice. Such scenes Maternal they out a see m ore heart-rending than those of death.

The Concert of Instrumental Music and Ventritoquism.—At APPOLLO HALL, on Tuesday Evenivo, Oct. 23d. The HEIL BROTHERS, accompanied by WASEL, the distinguished Ventriloquist, will give their first Concert in this city on the above evening. Tickets 25 cents.

For further porticulars see bills of the day. oct 23. se found, so the Court adjourned till afternoon when the Jury was finally organized, and proceeded to business. A few Surity of the Peace cases were disposed of in Court, which we do not deem worthy notice. A dog case was also heard, but as we

Il Shooting Match.—The Pittsburgh Rifle Company held their shooting match on Monday, Oct. 22d, and will continue to shoot for prizes from day to day, from 9 o'clock A. M. till 5 P. M. till the seven hundred shots are fired.

All are invited to attend. F. SEIDENSTRIKER. Capitain. were not in court we can not report it. Madame Ciocci is at the American Cincin anti. By the way, if the papers speak truth, that American Theatre must be a hard place. Here is an item from the Enquirer : We heard one of our most respectable citi zens say yesterday that he would neven visit either of our Theatres again until the third tiers were abolished. "Bless your soul," said a by-stunder, don't you know they could not exist wit

Bar The Rotunda of the Court House was entirejammed by people yesterday morning. The four ourt rooms were open, and all the County appear to be about on criminal and civil business. Jus tice seems to be in very great demand, and of course rices are high. We were at the Anti-Letter-Tax meeting for few minutes last evening. It was not very large, on account of the rain, but every face we recognized, belonged to a good Whig. This is an indication o the current of popular feeling on the subject of the Four Cents Outrage."

Rev. C. P. Parsons, (ex-Manager of the Pittsburgh Theatre) is expected to officiate as orater on he occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the Odd Fellows new Hall in Newport, Ky., on the 1st of November.

ternoon. The Defence opened. Mr. Beeson made the address. The testimony on the part of the Defence will be heard to day. SHOOTING MATCH. We understand that the medwas awarded to Mr. Lewis Schoolodaler, for ma-sing the best shot at the trial by the members of the sburgh Rifles, on Monday. We heard a man complain that he was releas ed from the weight of a pocket book and its con onts, yesterday, in the Rounda of the Court Hou But, he may find his money when he gets home." Mr. Adams appears as Othello, this evening. Mr. Robinson, a first rate comedian, will appear a ampson, in the Windmill.

The Chronicle says that some person in War en, Ohio, has raised larger Potatoes than those ex-Another Rail Road.—The papers are beg inning to talk about a Rail Road from Pittsburgh to Wash ington, Pa., Smith, of the Pitt street Brewery, lost not ing, as the insurance covered the destruction by fire.
