the Secretary to the Admirality, has been ma public, from which it will be seen that no dou is entertained in the highest official quarters, as the authenticity of the intelligence received by t n present, was immediately sent to the palace, and approved and confirmed by the Sultan. Thus the refusal of the Porte to yield to the ultimatum of Russia and Austria is definite, and General Aupick to day sends off an express packet to meet the Tel-emaque at Athens, and convey intelligence to his government of what has taken place. Fund Effendi, a commissioner of the Porte in the principalities, has been chosen to proceed on an extraordinary mission to the Emperor of Russia, to convey the an-swer of the letter brought by Prince Rudzivil. He will set off immediately for St. Petersburgh. Events are urgent; France and England have not a moment to lose, if they wish to place in the scale the weight of their councils and their influence, and thereby prevent more serious complications.

To vex the genius of repose On Death's majestic shore. No darkness there divides the sway With startling dawn and dazzling day ; home, can scarcely he him But glorioasly serene Are the interminable plains; One fixed, eternal sunset reigns l cannot doff all human fear ; I cannot doll all human lear; I know thy greeting is severe To this poor shell of clay; Yet come, O DEATH! thy freezing kiss Emancipates! thy rest in bliss! I would I were away. Lycoming Senatorial District. The following are the official returns in the Sen orial District composed of the counties named -Packer's majority . 1241
