HONES' YEAR BOOK, Every Day Book and Table cles of the kind now in use. Where the hair is dead, harsh, thin, unhealthy, nor turning grey, a few applications will make the hair soft and dark, and give it a beautiful, lively appearance; and will also make it maintain its liveliness and healthy color, twice as long as all the preparations that are generally used. Where the hair is thin, or has fallen off, it may be restored by using the Cream. Every lady and gentleman who is in the habit of using oils on their hair should at once purchase a bottle of the Chinese Hair Cream; as it is so composed that it will not injure the hair like the other preparations; but will beautify it, and give perfect satisfaction in every ingstance.
