The moment it was announced that Major Br. non contemplated collecting and publishing the writings of his distinguished father, a portion of ises to possess great interest.

The private letters of a man addressed to his intimate personal friends, always give a true index to his character, and reflect the complexion of his mind. In his preface Major Brnon says: "By these means I have been enabled to bring together such an amount of correspondence and unpublished matter, both in prose and verse, that in justice to my father's memory I consider my self called upon to place it before the public. Amongst the letters which will be found in the present series, are some of great value as evidence of the real piety of Lord Byron, and which, I trust, will altogether remove the charge of infidelity.— Others there are, which furnish the key to the Poet's love of woman. CINCINNATI, November 12, 1849. Editor Ohio Statesman : The decision of the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, was given yesterday in the case of roadwill and Ruffen and Clark Roll. It was an pplication to dismiss Roll for giving certificates to e Democratic representatives from Hamilton counnatter. The complainants had their mode of redress by an appeal to the Legislature, the proper place to ecide the matter; that no proof had been offered to show that Mr. Roll had acted coruptly in the discharge of his duty, but, that, on the contrary, the opposing counsel, Mr. Storer, had admitted that he bolished Mr. Roll had noted conscientiously in the case : that Mr. Roll could not do otherwise than to give the certificates as he did-it having been certi fied by the justices that the parties receiving them had obtained the highest number of votes. The case was therefore dismissed, and Mr. Roll decreed not guilty, as charged.

The opinion of the Court was very lengthy, but was delivered clearly by Judge Hart.

The Bill of Rights, as adopted in committee of the whole, embraces twenty sections, of the usual character of such provisions. The only point upon which it was supposed a controversy would rise-the question of slavery-passed without debate, and unanimously, utterly prohibiting slavery. Some few were in favor of submitting the matter to the people for a separate vote; but it was not contended for with any show of strenuosity, and was voted down almost unanimously. The suffrage question was the source of coasid-erable debate; but was finally disposed of by aderable debate; but was finally disposed of by admitting all male citizens of the United States, six months resident in California, and twenty-one years of age, (Indians, Africans, and the descendants of Africans, excepted,) to the privilege of electors.
