Nothing, in the face of the body of the revelations already made to the public, can seem more preposterous! It is even rumored to-day that Mr. Littlefield has already been arrested. This is false—atterly false. Who will suppose that Mr. Littlefield would have been so indefstigable in his labors to find the body as he has been during the past week—and who that he would have worked against such obstacles to get at it—were he guilty of murder in the case. Who supposes,—after Doctor Webster's acknowledgment that Doctor Parkman was at his (Dr. W.'s) room on the day he was missed—that Dr. Parkman could have been assassinated by Mr. L. while going out of the College and dragged back to the pricate room of Dr. Webster, and there cut up and disposed of him as he seems to have been found, and Dr. Webster not be cognizant of the fact! Indeed, the idea is too absurd, in our view of the matter, to be argued upon.

Various good reasons may be surmised, to account for this attempt to throw a deed of blood from a man in high society upon the head of a poor man. No doubt the friends of Webster are very anxious to shield him from the dread responsibility,—and it is not perhaps an entire impossibility that beings in he.

LOCAL MATTERS. Magazines ron January.—Miner, Smithfield street, has furnished us with Graham, for Jenuary. This number commences the new volume. It is the richest one ever issued. It, contains eight engravings. Among the contributors we notice the names_of Arthur, Street, Grace Greenwood, Poe Simms, Mrs. Orgood, and about twenty others. Peterson's is also a good number. It contains number of superb engravings. The contributio seem to be superior to the common standard Magazine literature. We are indebted to Mini for the January number, We are thankful to Gen. Larimer, for a copy of the Proceedings of the Iron Convention; We observe that it is a meagre report. The best speech of Andrew Stewart is not even referred to. Judge Shaler's is fully and very correctly given-We will treasure this document, for it will serv for future reference. Our head for a loot-ball, if those whose names appear conspicuously in its pages, do not blush at an exhibition of it in the year 1860, if they be alive. The Protective deluci will not last so long as that.
