 On Vicesday a dernoon, July 25, 1643, the indersigned were called upon by Messre, Liprenceut & Barr, to witness an honest and fair test of one o. their Photenix Safes. The furnace being prepared, tae Safe wisplaced inside thereof, with books, papers and some mover; when the door of the Safe was closed and the Gr kindled at a guarter past 2 o'clock, and in a short time the Safe was red kor, and continued till half past 6 o'clock, being about four and a half hours; when the committee expressed was sufficient. The furnace was then pulled down, Safe cooled, and door opened—the books, papers and money safe. The heat was so great as to melt of the brass mountings: We therefore take pleasure in recommend-ing these Sates to the public, as being in our judgment, entirely fire proof.
