mike in regard to the children, and saying that he would compensate them fully for their trouble and their kindness.] I wrote three or four letters to Dwyer; don't recollect receiving any letters from him after Sept. 15. I wrole to him more than once after that date, before I bound the children and after it. Directed the let-ters to the Old Post Office House, St. Louis; have received answers to letters directed that way. After the 25th of Sept. I kept the children, at his request, two months before having them bound; they were bound on the 24th of Nov; after the children were bound, I wrote him that he could have the childre at any time when he would pay the expenses o ling, medical attendance and clothing. The ren were five and seven years of age. When we took the children it was understood that the girl was to go into the Asylum for a month; when Mr.

Dwyer didn't roturn at the end of the mouth, she

Dwyer didn't roturn at the end of the mouth, she remained there three weeks longer, and we took her home. She had an ulcerated core throat; Dr. Gaz. Tam attended her; he is my family physician. The child's medical bill amounted to $10; she was five weeks sick in my house after she left the Asylam. Told Mr. Dwyer before he went away if he would bind the children to me until they were 21 years of age, I would keep them; never saw Mr. Dwyer since he went away until he was brought up this time. A gentleman came to my house in Mr. Dwyer, and said that he had been instructed to take the children from me by a writ of Habeas Corpus; he had not been instructed to pay me; was served with the writ, and brought the children before the District Court; Burke was my counsel; C. From May last until the 18th of September 18th the children were going to the Fourth Ward public School. On the 19th or 20th they want to school, but did not return. Mr. Dwyer with the children in violation of the law. Went dawn to the Mayor's office the afternoon or the next day after the children had been taken away; to the children had been taken away; to the didn't know that I was the Mr. Connelly that had the children or he would not have taken lethat had the children or he would not have taken them away; told him that the children had been legally bound and sanctioned by the District Court.—

The Mayor said "d—n the District Court, it's all wrong—there's nothing wrong about it."

I said I would apply to the law for redress; the Mayor said "Go ahead." Dwyer represented himself to measa Catholic, and it was his desire that the crit fainly heapt, to the Catholic Assume.

The children were clothed and fed at my expense.
From the time Mr. Dwyer came to my house until the children were taken away, I received nothing for their expense; my mother-in-law and wide nursed them during their sickness; I consider that about two dollars a week would cover all their expenses; the children were treated as well as I knew how; took the children to the office of the Guardians of the Poor, and they bound them to me.

Orost examined.—It is about two years since I first saw Mr. Dwyer; it was at the time of his marriage with Miss Dillon; she died last spring; some time; it was in May, '49, when I first saw the children; about a week after Dwyer; left; told Mr. Hague, when he went after him, not to soulle it with Mr. Dwyer for $400 or less; the bill was $497, without Hague's expanses. In Ald Steel's office, asked him if he had come to shoot; if so, I was prepared for him; told him that if he wasn't a prisoner, I would thrash him for the manner in which prepared for him; told him that if he wasn't a pris-oner, I would thrush him for the manner in which oner, I would thrush him for the manner to which he had blackguarded him in St. Louis; he offered me $300, to compromise; I wouldn't take his note for it; thought, when I had the children bound, I could keep them until they were twenty-one years of age. Judge Hepburn, sworn.-I issued a habeas corpus; there was a thorough investigation of the case before me; Mr. Miller, Dwyer's agent and Attorney, conducted the case with much ability; he made a good argument, they all said.

New York, January 6. Tee Georgia brings 550 passengers, and left 400 t Havana for New Orleans. The Oregon arrived at Panama on the 20th ult. with $2,000,000 in gold dust. The Georgia brings $250,000.

The Republic arrived at Panama with $200,000. A large robbery of $200,000 occurred on the Arrival of the Georgia-Two Weeks La New York, January 6. The Georgia brought $500,000 in gold.

The Cholera has again broken out in California The steamer arrived here this morning from Chagres, via Havana. She brings the United States mails from San Francisco to December 1st. The Oregon had arrived at Panama from San Francisco, with $200,000 in gold dust, and the Republic with $200,000 on freight, and $100,000 in the hands of passengers. The Georgia left Chagres on the 26th, with 724 passengers, 410 of whom she left at Havana to go by the Pacific to New Orleans.

The Oregon arrived at Panama with 276 passe The news from California is 10 weeks later than the last advices. The Cholegaris still prevailing in California to a considerable extent. Among the rictims was Mayor Bigelow of Sacramento, the same who was so badly wounded in the squatter riots in that city. After raging with terrible malignity it has almost entirely disappeared. Business, consequently, is rising, and the city, after being almost prostrated, was again in the full tide of prosa

There is not much news from the mining regions, and the accounts received do not vary materially from the former ones. Many of the miners wer preparing to winter in the mountains. The San Francisco markets were overstocked with produce and merchandize of all kinds, which causes a downward tendency in prices. The deaths in San Francisco are not so numerous in proportion to the population, as they were 12 months since.

Many of the streets are planked, and some other improvements are going on. The rainy season commenced in carnest on th 19th November. FROM HAVANA. When the Georgia sailed from Havana, all was quiet in the city and island. Several returning Californians got on a lark in the city, and were arrested and imprisoned by the authorities for rioting. The new captain of the guard manifested a disposition to be severe upon them. The Havanese were looking with much interest for the arrival of Jenny Lind and party. They were expected on the 3rd instant. Great preparation were made for their reception. SECOND DESPATCH. Much complaint is made in California of the negligence of Congress in not providing for the wants of the people. Among their wants are-a Mint, a Post Office, Mail Routes, Land Titles, &c.

The recent rains have opened the upper rivers so that small steamers can now navigate. The rains, also, give the miners in the dry diggings a better chance to work out the ore. Many new voins have been discovered. In fact, the gold stories are very favorable. The political complexion of the Legislature is still doubtful. Both parties claim a majority. The Alta California says it is domocratic. The election in facramento is yet to come off, and may change the aspect. Deaths .- Virgil Benneham, of Baltimore; and John H. Titus, of Pennsylvania. Markets .- The heavy arrivals and late sickness cause duliness, and large quantities of goods have ocen forced off much below the original cost. Flour-Steady. Domestics and Furniture declining. Coal, dull and heavy. Boots, active.

In speaking of the Fugitive Slave Law, he says: " Whatever difference of opinion may exist as to the late Compromise measures enacted by Congress-however the ultra men in the North or South may oppose or denounce them, there is but one course of action for the true patriot to pursue, that is unhesitatingly and in good faith to carry out their enactments. There s no safety for property or life except in the absolute supremacy of the law-there is no higher duty of the citizen than to maintain, by word and deed. that supremacy. As we value the heritage, rich beyond all price, purchased not with silver or gold, but with the life blood of the good and brave-the heritage bequeathed to us by our fathers, and which we in turn must bequeath inviolate to our descendants-let us bear in mind that the first public act of disobedience to law is the first fatal step on the downward road to anarchy."

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—I berewith forward to you a Certificate of a Curs, effected by your Compound Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchelagua. The Cough and expectaration was of fourteen months standing, and had builled the skill of severn of our eminent physicians in New York, Albany and Cooperstown. I am the person in whom the cure was effected, and as I had previously no fail h in patent medicines, I have since tried it on others, and have become satisfied of its value. Mine was as great a cure as was ever performed, as I had during my sickness, been given up twice by my physicians. I have now commenced my business, after taking, I think, about eight boiles.
