J. J BROOKES, dec24:rd Released.—James Coop, convicted of Assault and Battery, and sentenced on Saturday to pay a fine of $5 and costs of prosecution, and in default of which went to jail, was on Monday released from prison, by the benevolence of some one, in psying the fine; and, the commissioners, as we are informed, remitted the costs. Truly, this was well placed benevolence, and if we read aright, it would be hard one more deserving of sympathy. Coop, at one time, in this city, was in living circumstances, but his hopes were blighted and his prospects blasted, in being rebbed in one night of all he possessed. but his hopes were blighted and his prospects blasted, in being robbed in one night of all he possessed. Cough and Discase of fourteen months standing Cured, After being given up twice by eminent Physicians!

Messr. A. L. Scovill & Co.—I herewith forward to you a Certificate of a Cure, effected by your Compound Syrup of Liverwort, Tar and Canchalagua. The Caugh and expectoration was of fourteen months standing, and had builled the skill of several of our eminent physicians in New York, Albany and Cooperstown. I am the person in whom the cure was effected, and as I had previously no fait in patent medicines, I have since tried it on others, and have become satisfied of its value. Mine was as great a cure as was ever performed, as I had, during my sickness, been given up twice by my physicians.
I have now commenced my business, after taking, I thick, about eight bouler.

Yours, respectfully, THOS. C. FAULDER.
