Those who are in want or states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are few higher authorities than Dr. Pereira.

Dr. Comes, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the dua quantity of the Gastric Juice's a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia," and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely affilieted with this complaint, Inding everything else to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomach of living animuls, which proved completely encressful.

Dr. Graham, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomach of animals, macerated in water, impart to the flaid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process?"

Dr. Simon's great work, the "Chemistry of Man," (Lea & Blanchard, Phila, 1840, pp. 321-2) says: "The discovery of PEPSIN forms a new era in the chemical history of Digestion. From recent experiments we know that food is dissolved as rapidly in an artificial digestive fluid, prepared from Pepsia, as it is in the natural Gastric Juice itself."

Professor Dunglison, of the Jefferson College, Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject. His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice, obtained from the living human stomach and from nammals, are well known. "In all cases." he says, "digestion occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

Pr. Hotsenton's preparation of PEPSIN has produced the most marvelous effects, curing cases of Debility, rhose who are in wanted or Alemy vited to call and examine for Alem D Steamboats furnished on it;

The Facultics, for intellectual abilities, moral worth and professional acquirements, will compare favorably with the most distinguished in our country. The Medical Faculty constitutes an anomaly in this or any other country—all of them are able Lecturers and the best of Tenchers.

Those who will contemplate our geographical position, and the extent of our population, can have no doubt as to the eligibility of our situation for an enterprise of the kind. As to health, including all seasons of the year, we deny that anyothereity has more.

The first class of the Law and Medical Departments on this institute were small, but the gentlemen composing them are inlented and in the highest degree respectable—a favorable-ourselfor the future prosperity of the Institute.

That the public may be satisfied of the permanency of this school, we feel it our duty to state, that the Trustees and Faculty form a until n action, which augurs well for its fature success; and that the peculiar internal organization which connects them, cannot be interupted.

The "Please are a not be interupted.

apt President of the Memphis Institute.
