FELLOW CITIZENS-A renewal of expressions of original papers in the State department, con-nected with the Colonial and Revolutionary hisof gratitude to the Almighty Father, for his man-ifold mercies and protecting influences during the past year, and the utterance of a prayer " in spirit tory of the State, and their extremely exposed and erishing condition. These records are worth preservation, as containing authentic information of the action of our fathers in the struggle for and in truth." for the continuance of these bless ings, well become a people who habitually acknowledge the superintending care of a just and merciful God. The abundant harvests of the late national existence. In the Capital of Pennsylvania, and with the sympathies of her patriotic per ple, was Independence matured and declared.— Her soldiers were most numerous around the season, the general exemption of the community from disease, the rapidly improving condition of the country, in all things which confer happiness standard of the nation, and there were more batand rational contentment, increased facilities of the fields on her soil than in the same area else-where. The melancholy duty devolves on me of formally announcing to the General Assembly the fact the decease of the Chief Magistrate of the Nation, the veperable ZACHART TATLOR, who died at the City of Washington on the evening of the 9th of July last. The Soldler whose brilliant achievements in arms added new lustre to the military fame of the country, and the Statesman whose policy, as shadowed forth in his recommendations to Congress, was that of the wisest and most generous patriotism, died in the full possession of his great mental faculties, surrounded by endeared relatives, cherished friends and patriotic members of govern-ment, with the calm resignation becoming a Christian soldier, and founded on the faith which teaches that death has no terrors for those who faithfully endeavor to do their duty. The Amer.

But be the cause what it may, it is in vain to deny that the Union of the States is lightly and irroverently talked of in certain quarters, and maile the subject of heated discussion by rash and unreflecting men. I cannot believe, however, that any serious design to disrupt and overthrow the Government exist, to daty of faithful observance of her Federal obliga-tions by the Commonwealth, the views expressed in former messages remain unchanged. There is

ay considerable extent, in any portion of the country. The American heart revolts at the idea. What is the National Union 7 It is the basis of constitutional right, the guarantee of peace, the security of religion, the bulwark of all law and order. It gives the surest pledge of protection to the or-pressed children of other lands, who, coming from of Constitutional duty has desinguished our gos-ernment and people, and if an opinion exists within, or has been mischlerously propagated beyond our borders, that such is not the fact, it is conceived in error of our true history. an earned desire that, by a free interchange of mo-derate and rational opinions, obcdience to the law may be made, not only implicit, but cheerfut, it is proper to refer to some of the difficulties in relation to the subject now existing in the public mind. The clause of the Federal Constitution relative to fugitives from labor involves these propositions: 1. That including service or slavner way exist in the will, which encircles and gaards the tempts of our independece. The Union slone secures to our com-merce protection on every sea, defence to our coin-zens on every shore, gives us a proud name among the nations of the earth, and ensures to the Repub-That involuntary service or slavery may exist in the States of the Union by constitutional recognition. 2. That the excape of the person so hold shall not op-crate as a discharge from such service or labor. 3. the nations of the earth, and ensures to the Repub-lic an enlarged and glorious destiny. Its preserva-tion, ratifies the assurance that man is capable of self-government, and that equal rights, equal laws, and equal privileges, are alone the results of demo cratic institutions. The dissolution of the National Union would be the beginning of civit war, the strife of sections, of secares of fraternal discord. It would only the hordman amide the hordman of crate as a discharge from such service of fabor. 3. That on the claim of the party to whom such serv-ice is due, there must be a readition of the fagilive. To interfore by Legislative enactment, or other-wise, to destroy or is any way affect the right of property recognized in the first proposition, would be a daring violation of the clear obligations of the Constitution. No human being can pretond that by this Commonwealth such an interforence has ever raise the arm of the bondman amidst the horrors of servile war; and the destruction of a race of men alone would terminate the fearful struggle. It would involvo conterminous States, acting as jealous stran gers, in versations disputes about rights of navigation, of tribute, of transit. It would sacrifice the faith of the nation. It would destroy the army and the na vy, and with them the prood recollections of their carly exploits. The trophies of the nation would be dispersed, and the great communion of thought, of sentiment, and of interest, in which, for more han seventy years, we have gloried, would be gone forever. Deeply impressed by these considerations, and relying most confidently on the entire sympathics of the General Assembly of a State, which has never A manufact of the status of the known an instant's disloyalty to the Union. Remarkable Case. FV1DNCE IN OUR MIDST. Mr. Kier.-Si, I cheerfally comply with your re-quest, that I would give you an account of the almost miraculous cure of my little daughter's eye, by the use of your "PETROLEUM." Sue was attacked with a very sore eye, in February or March last, when I immediately applied to the best me-dical ait in the city by whom it was pronounced "a very bad eye," and all gave me no hope of doing her any good. After which I took her into the country to an old tady, who had been very successful in curing eyes. She told me that her case was hopeless, as sho would certainly lose not only that one, but, alko, that the other would follow-it being a zerofulous affection of the blood. And I do certify, that at the time my father (J. B. Vashon.) came to the conclusion that we had bet-ter try your "Petroleum," she sus anticip blind of our sys. It is now about two months since she began its use, and she can now see with both eyes as good asshe ever did ; and, as far as I can tell, believe sus has, with the blessing of the Atmighty, been cared by "Petroleum."
