It clears the throat perfectly of all collections of muccus, and gives tone and clearness to the voice.

Symptoms—The symptoms which usually usher in a Cough or Cold may be enumerated as follows: This disease in the books is calle caturary and is preceded by an increased discharge from the nose; fances and bronchia; there is a feeling of institude over the whole body, and very often cold shiverings are fell; at least the body, and very often cold shiverings are fell; at least the only is more than usually sensitive to the action of the air: the pulse increases in frequency, and there is generally more or less fever. These symptoms are soon followed with hourseness and as sense of roughness and sense of weight in the forthead, as well as a heaviness in moving the eyes. These feelings, sometimes at the very beginning of the disease, and always, soon after, are attended with a distillation from the nose and sometimes from the eyes, of a thin acid flinid, which freis and irritates the parts over which it passes. The cough is at first usually dry; but as the disease progresses there is an expectoration of thin macous, which gradually becomes thicker and more copious, and having some appearance of pus-BOOK AND JOB PRINTING. For proof of the above read the following certifiwill be found to by one of the choicest selections of garments ever got up in this or any other city in the Western Country.

My purchases having been all made early, I have the refore avoided the late advances made in almost all descriptions of Woollen Goods, and am therefore ensibled to offer my, stock at a usualty low prices.

I have this season paid more than usual attention to the manufacturing find style of my garments, so that the very lowest priced as well as the finest are got up in a style and elegance not to be surpassed. Hundreds of new customers, both wholesale and retail, have been attracted as much by the superior make of the clothing has by the lowness of my prices.

The proprietor would particularly call the attention of all dealers in Clothing to Lis present stock, believing that upon examination of the quality and prices of his Goods they will be induced to purchase at his establishment. The wholesale room now contains upwards of 9,000 garments, from the finest in quality to the lowestin price.

The proprietor is now determined to make this department a point of great attraction; and with this view has constantly on hand a large quantity of goods suited to every section of the United States.

In the cutting department will always be found a very large selection of all the choicest makes of Cloths, Cassimeres and Silks, to be found in this or eastern markets. He is prepared to make cloths to order, in the shortest as well as the public in general, to call and examine for hemselves.

He respectfully invites his old friends and customers as well as the public in general, to call and examine for hemselves. For proof of the above read; the following certificates:

Dr. Keyser:—We take pleasure in certifying, for the benefit of other sufferers, to the efficacy of your PECTURAL COUGH SYRUE, in our case. During the use of two bottles purchased of you we were cured of a boarseness amounting to an entire loss of voice; and effectually relieved of a severe cough, which threatened permanent injury to the lungs.

At the Branking House of Wr. A. Hill & Co. Pittsburgh.

Feb. 1 50.

Dr. Ekyser:—You have asked me the effects of your Pectomi. Syrup in my own case. I had a very bad cough during part of last winter. It began with a feeling of fullness in the head; increased secretion and suffusion of terre: together with boarseness, pain in the breast and the other secompaniments of what has been denominated "Tyler: Grippe." I took two buttles of your Pectoral Syrup, according to the directions on the bottle; and I am now, and have been ever aince, entirely free from any of the unpleasant symptoms enumerated above. You have my permission to publish this for the good of your sales, as well as the Pablic, if you desire to do so. Very respectfully, yours, &c.

Dr. Comm. in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the ducquantity of the Gastric Juiceis a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguisated professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding everything else to fall, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomach of living animals, which proved completely successful."

Dr. Garams, anthor of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the fauld the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestion of them in no wise different from the natural digestive process." Dr. Sixos's great work, the "Chemistry of Man." (Lea & Blanchard, Phila., 1840, pp. 321-2) suys: "The discovery of PEPSIN forms a new ers in the chemical hastery of Digeation. From recent experiments we know that food is dissolved as rapidly In an arificial digentive daid, prepared from Pepsin, as it is in the natural Gastric Julce itsel?"

Professor Duxérison, of the Lefferson College, Philindelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject. His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Julce, obtained from the living human stomach and from animals, are well known. "In all cases," he says, "digestion occurred as perfeculy in the artificial as in the natural digeations."

Philosophy of Hrandsch's Vegotable

Philosophy of Hrandsch's Vegotable

WHEN the theory of the circulation of the blood was established, the secret springs of vitality were then partially exposed to our view. We saw and understood that the food we cat, was converted into blood, which repaired the waste of the animal machine; the food is fuel, which keeps at a life heat the internal fires that warm and invigorate our inner man. The blood is an electric fluid which carries this heat to every ramification of the body, even to the extremities of the hair and henry nall. While the blood is thus the seat of ilife pits also the seat of disease. Food gives the body istrength; Brandsch's pills give blood the necessary power to throw out from itself all imparities, thus rendering the stream of life pure and healthy. If men were more sincere, there would be fewer religious creeds; and if they kept close to astare's laws in the management of their bodies, they would require little medicine. As men grow intelligent they will become wiser and happier; even now, their wisdom is proved by the fact that, when sickness assalls them, they use Brandsch's Vegenhle Universal Fills, which soon restore them to health. They are peculiarly adapted to the climate, and require no extra cate when they are used, in either dietor clothing. They should be always in the house, so that upon the first indication of sickness they may be used. One does in the beginning is more potent for good, than a dozen after the sickness is fixed in the system. In colds, coughs, asthma, rheumatism, costiveness, fevers, and in all acute, heavy, or deep-seated pains, their effects will be found beyond all praise. Three or five will not like be found beyond all praise. Three or five will not like be found beyond all praise. Three or five will not like be found beyond all praise.
