THE TRAITORS! Who would be a traiter, knave?
Who so base to be a slave? ... We have at length ascertained the names of th professing Democrats who refused to go into the Democratic Legislative Caucus, to nominate candidate for U.S. Senator. Here are the Arnolds

The report goes on to say: The Committee then proceeded to the discharge eported, that the Committee had an interview with Messrs, J. B. Packer, Shugart, Hemphill and was made for the other absentees, Messrs. Frailey, Trone, Leech, Freeman, (independent) and Halde-ement, fearful of the awful, judgment that awaits him? Verily, he shall have his reward! Simon Cameron. Our Harrisburg correspondent to-day alludes in severe but just language to the disreputable efforts made by SIMON CAMEBON to have himself elected U. S. Senator. There is but one feeling throughout Pennsylvania amongst honest Democrats in regard to the Chief of the Winnebagoes, and that is utter abhorrence. If the acts of Camenow at the Williamsport Convention disjusted the Democracy, we think his course at Harrisburg has crowned him with eternal infamy. In addition to the developments given by our correspondent brother FORNEY of the Pennsylvanian has made an exposition of the vile tricks of the Cashier of the Middletown Bank, which must forever make him an object of loathing and contempt amongst all honorable men.

Says the Pennsylvanian: Seven were all that could be induced to stay out of caucus; and against these the voices of the aroused Democracy at the Capitol was raised in tones of indignant condemnation. When a Committee from the Democratic majority appointed to invite the recusants back to their obligations, proceeded to discharge their date, they found three of the disorganizers closefed tod. It is was reserved for Gioia to present the Maratheir obligations, proceeded to discharge their duty, they found three of the disorganizers closeted with Carabon in the side-room of one of the hotels. He openly attempted to prevent the Committee from addressing them; and finally, when an appeal was being made to one of these recurrents, he took him by the arm and led him away—fearful lest he might be persuaded to do his duty to his principles and his party. Even when the nomination was effected, the boldest attempts were made to overthrow and to defeat it. Until were made to overthrow and to defeat it. Until the creation of the elements, and its rollindes traversed late at night, and even after midnight, on Monday, the creatures of Cameron were at work trying to believed that one member was offered $5,000 for his vote against the nominee he was pledged to support, and it is known that one gallant Democrat was openly appealed to to run against the nomine atton of Mr. Broder, with the promise of Whigh and disorganizing support—an offer which he aternly, and summarily declined. On the morning of Taesday, the same efforts were continued, and it was only when the friends of Carreno saw that they could not break down Mr. Brodera—after some of them had taken ground against him in public hotels—that they crept back to their seats, public hotels-that they crept back to their seats, and obeyed the very decree they had laughed at United States Senators.

From Harrisburg. NUMBER IV.

HARRISEURG, January 16, 1851. The receipt of the intelligence of Guthrie's ection caused a feeling of undissembled satisfacion on the part of the Democracy here. Whatever may have been the particular circumstances tending to such a result, the fact that the "Iron City" will be relieved from the Mayorship of Joe Barker, and his place supplied by an honest Dem ocrat, is a cause for rejoicing to your citizens. I presume the relief will be as great as was that presume the relief will be as great as was that
