JOSEPHINE AND NAPOLEON.

The Separation-Ambition masters Love-

very interesting extracts from a forthcomvery interesting extracts from a forthcom-ing work of J. S. C. Abbott, on Napoleon. The fatal day for the consummation of perial spirit of Napoleon was for the mo-The divorce of Josephine, or rather her the divorce at length arrived. It was the voluntary renunciation of her title as a 15th day of December, 1809. Napoleon wept almost convulsively. He assured of Liverpool and have thus protected for the diverpool and have the dide diverpool and Wife and a Queen, will over be among the had assembled all the Kings, Princes, and Josephine of his love, and of his ardent and cute their great work. They have upwards of 4,000 most important points in the history of Princesses, who were members of the Im-even those remarkable times. It is known perial family, and also the most illustrious soothe and comfort her, and for some time that Napoleon had determined to make the officers of the Empire, in the Grand Sa nat Rappleon and determined to make the olders of the Empires in the Grand Sa they reinfined locked in each other's emdaughter, his heir, but all their hopes were present was oppressed with the melancholy for an hour they continued in this last pri-blasted by the death of that beloved boy. grandeur of the occasion. Napoleon thus vate interview. Josephine then, in the construct a Railway foor and Piqua, Napoleon had therefore determined to sep addressed them : "The political interest of my monarchy, arate from Josephine and marry again; but the announcement was to be made to her. the wishes of my people, which have con-Thus the scene opens : stantly guided my actions, require that I At last the fatal day arrived for the an- should transmit to an heir inheriting m nouncement to Josephine. It was the last love for the people, the throne on which day of November, 1809. The Emperor Providence has placed me. For many and Empress dined at Fontainbleu alone. years I have lost all hopes of having chil-

She seemed to have had a presentiment dren by my beloved spouse, the Empress that her doom was scaled, for all that day Josephine. It is this consideration which she had been in her retired apartment induces me to sacrifice the sweetest affecweeping bitterly. As the dinner hour ap-proached, she bathed her swollen eyes and of my subjects, and desire the dissolution tried to regain composure. They sat down of our marriages derived at the age of to the table in silence. Napoleon did not forty years, I may indulge a reasonable speak. Josephine could not trust her hope of living long enough to rear, in the voice to say, a word," Neither of them spirit of my own thoughts and disposition, even feigned to eat. Course after course the children with whom it may please Pro was brought in, and removed untouched. vidence to bless me. God knows what such vidence to bless me, God knows what such A mortal paleness revealed the anguish of a determination has cost my heart; but each heart. Napoleon, in his embarrass there is no sacrifice which is above my ment, mechanically, and apparently un- courage when it proves to be the interest consciously, kept striking the edge of his of France. Far from having any cause glass with his knife, while lost in thought. of complaint, I have nothing to say but in A more melancholy meal was probably praise of the attachment and tenderness of never witnessed. The attendants around my beloved wife. She has embellished the table caught the infection, and gazed filteen years of my life, and the remem in wondrous silence. At last the ceremo | brance of them will be forever engraven ny of dinner was over, the attendants were on my heart. She was crowned by my dismissed, and Napoleon and Josephine own hand. She shall always retain the were alone. Another moment of most rank and title of Empress. Above all, let painful silence ensued, when the Emperor, her never doubt my feelings, or regard m pale as death and trembling in every nerve, as her best and dearest friend."

arose and approached Josephine. He took Josephine, her eyes filled with tears her hand, and, placing it upon his heart, with a faltering voice, replied : said : "I respond to all the sentiments of the

Josephine! my own good Josephine! Emperor, in consenting to the dissolution of you know how I have loved you. It is to a marriage which henceforth is an obstayou alone that I owe the few moments of ble to the happiness of France, by depriv-will. My dearest affections must yield to man, evidently raised up by Providence to the interests of France. efface the evils of a terrible revolution, and Josephine's brain reeled; her blood ceas. to restore the altar, the throne, and social ed to circulate, she fainted and fell lifeless order. But his marriage will in no res- full and efficient police force, so as to put an end upon the floor. Napoleon, alarmed, threw pect change the sentiments of my heart .--- to the lawless spirit that now prevails to so alarmopen the door of the saloon, and called for The Emperor will ever find in me his best ing an extent in this community. help. Attendants from the ante-room im. friend. I know what this act, commanded ly entered. Napoleon took a taper by policy and exalted int has cost rests.

her own feeling to promote the happiness [ chamber of Napoleon ... but in another mo-JUNCE HIRE AND INFUERVIT. The Separation—Ambition masters Love— The Tast interview between Josephine and Napoleon. The Home Journal is publishing some tery interesting extracts from a forthcom-tery interview between Josephine and for the sector of the sector though her heart was breaking. The imexperience of an anguish which few hearts have ever known, parted forever from the

on a charge of having mardered John B. Carbonne husband whom she had so long, so fondly has acknowledged to the orime. The murder was con mitted in Michigan, in Dec. last. and so faithfully loved. - Gov. Hunt has issued a proclamation, offerin eward of three hundred dollars for the apprehensic

its final completion to Sidney and the Bellefontaine road.

longs to the Democratic school of politics.

lives, on account of its defects.

The Morning Post Flushing, L. I., on the let inst. L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

PITTSBURGH:

THESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 28, 1851. o be tried on the road next week. III" "No American cliizen can ever seats to estern i mion es its firti of all blassings. Diantion." (od fi id. - Nations wet suborn sound, rue the rationest of . leed P-Boonstan.

will not berr this reason. Democratic Stats Sonventious. AT READING, ting candidates for GOVERSOR and CANA and 360 miles. OFFICENCE, on the 4th of June, 1851. as fixed by the

AT HARRISBURG. ating candidates for SUPREME BEACH, on th If th of June, 1851, as fixed the regular action of the contempt upwards of fifteen years.

ate Central Committee, To Advertisers.

The Morning Post has a larger circulation subscription paper published in Pittsburgh. ness mon it alfords an excellent medium for Ad and being the only Democratic paper issued in ny county, it goes into the hande of a class o reached by no other paper. "Advertisers will enough to bear this in mind. fire near his residence. We are indebted to WM, S. CAMPBELL' Eig., Superintendent on the Allegheny Portage of fue claret. Railroad, for a copy of his Report, for the fiscal year ending Nov. 30, 1850. Meeting of Councils last Etvoning. In the Common Councils last evening a report from the Police Committee, authorising the May-been arrested for the third time. or, at his discretion, to employ five additional Day Police, was adopted nearly unanimously. This is a very important measure, and will meet with the hearty concurrence of the citizens of lice. Pittsburgh ... There is now a fixed determination on the part of the citizens and Councils to have a in the subject of internal improvements at the south-west contemplate holding a general railroad convention in I Orleans next April.

In addition to the above, an Ordinance

Scribblings and Clippings. The Editor of the Wheeling Argus is bracking up the little village opposite Zane's Island, in Virginia It needs cracking up, Doctor I -In the House of Representatives, Jan. 16, o member Mr. Bigham reported a bill, repealing the law organizing the Board of Rovenue Commissioners.

Agricultural Convention has adjourned finally .men and 1.000 horses on their lines west of Camberland A constitution was adopted for the future governand will prosecute the work with the atmost vigor to ment of the Society. A memorial was also adopted to the Legislature, asking an Act of incorpora tion, and also a small appropriation to aid in car-as well as the constitution and memorial, you will ---- Joseph Rabideux, recently arrested in Canad find in the Harrisburg papers. The Convention was well attended, and exhibited considerable zeal and talent. It left a favorable impression on the members of the Legislature and on the citizens here who attended its sittings of John Relly, accused of murdering Thos. Gleason, 1 The State Temperance Convention met here yesterday, and adjourned to-day. Several coun-A locomotive engine is in course of construction for the Erie Railroad on an entirely new principle, no ties of the State were represented. Hon. GEO. ] MCFABLANE, of Blair county, presided. The Hall thing but alcohol being used for heating the boiler. It is of the House was voted to the Convention last ---- The next peach crop, it is predicted, will be evening, and on that occasion was filled to overfailure. The Syrneyse Journal says the fruit buds o flowing. The ladies of Harrisburg, many of the their peach and apricot trees are all dead, and that they citizens, together with the Senators and Members

The Livernool Times says that the Cunard ste made up quite a large and respectable audience .er Asia, on her receil trip from N. York to Liverpool The Convention had made arrangements to fur steamed in three succassive days, respectively, 328, 32 nish speakers for the occasion. The first was a very able and very lengthy speech by Mr. PAX------ In the Vice Chancellor's Court at London, an a ilication was lately made before Lotd Cranworth for rox, of the City of Philadelphia. After he closed the discharge of a pritoner who had been in custody fo his remarks, a motion was made, as follows:---"Mr. President, I move that the Hon. Joseph - The Western Star is the name of a new paper Barker, Ex-Mayor of Pittsburgh, who is now presstarted at Milwaukie, Oregon, on the Wilamette.

ent, be requested to address this Convention."------ We learn from Washington that, on Monday This motion was received with a laugh, mingled he Hon. Preston King broke the cap of his right knee, with a lew cries of Barker! Barker! Barker! The by slipping on the frozen pavement, while proceeding whole subject was very coolly and very properly disposed of by the President, who remarked "that ----- Wine is produced in Blinnesota territory from the the Convention had made its own arrangements frost grape of chicken grape, which has a rich ruby col to furnish speakers that evening, and if the audior, and possesses a soft, delicate flavor, similar to that ence desired to hear Mr. Barker, the Convention ---- It is thought the Senate will reject the Chenp Postage Bill, which has been passed by the House of would adjourn and give them the use of the hall." Mr. WICKENSHAM, of Lancaster County, then came forward and delivered a very able and ele ----- A big negro, who called himself Elias the propi quent address. While he was speaking, some t, and paraded the streets of Rochester, armed with word, rifle, &c., trightening women and children, ha effort was made to get Barker over in the Senate Chamber, which finally succeeded. He was there - At Washington city, Mary Benedict has been surrounded by a small crowd, and commenced sentenced to the State Prison for four years for perjur making a speech. But unfortunately for poor a the case of Mr. Brown, a third of whom she wa he paramour. Her object was to shield him from j

Barker, just at this juncture, Senators BROOKE and SANDERSON entered the Hall, and immediately inquired for the officers. The Sergeant.at.Arms being absent, the duty of asking Joseph out devolved upon his assistant. It is due to this officer to the Stockholders of the Allegheny and Builer. cer to say that he performed his duty with "neats" The and angles and company, that an election to elect one press and deepath "Lioned here and a the line and the state of the Managers and a Tressurer for said Comness and despatch." Joseph remarked as he left, pany, will be held at the hous of Mr. Bower, town. In Allecheny county, on Thursday, it

---- Amin Bey, an Ambassador from the Terkish Em pite, arrived at New Orleans on the 13th, and Father. Matthew on the 11th from Florida. The latter was to pat if they would come out he would make them of Fe

From Barrisburg. REV. WALTER COLTON, Chaplain in the United CORREPONDENCE OF THE MORNING NUMBER IX. HARBISBURG, January 24th, 1850.

Rev. WALTER COLTON, Chaplain in the United States Navy, died at his residence in this city, yes-lerday afternoon. He was a gentleman of much worth in his profession, and occupied quite a high position as a man of letters. After the occupation of California by our naval forces, he administered the office of Alcalde of Monterey with much energy and to the satisfaction of all the insabitants, Spanish as well as American. His work on California, recently published, his 4' Ship and Shore, 2' and other moduce. Dear Sir . Since my last letter to you nothing of unusual importance has occurred here. Both Houses of the Legislature are now fairly started published, his "Ship and Shore," and other productions of a kindred character, are among the pleasantest books of the kind that have been written, -Philadelphia Bulletin; Jan. 24. and it is generally expected that the business of the State will be speedily transacted. The State

What a man whispers in confidence is more published than what he openly declares. The latter is unheeded, while the former is treasured up and derives its importance from the charge of secrety, and is communicated from ear to ear, in confidence until the whole world knows it. This is the wa and is - commy rying out the designs of the Convention. Officers until the whole world knows it. This is the war in which family secrets become noised abroad-were elected for the ensuing year. Their names, What must be whispered had better not be said

Married : On Monday, 37th inst., by the Rev. E. McMahon, Mr Josepe J. Uzam, of this city, to Miss Annue T.; daughte of P. Mulvany, Esq., of Birmingham.

The young couple, who are now one, have the be wishes of all who know them. May all the joys of con ibial bliss attend them, shall be our present prayer DIED

In Allegheny City, on Saturkay, 25th Inst., MARTH Davisson, aged 17 years and 2 months.

Public Meeting at the Board of Trade Rooms.—A meeting of the members of the Board of Trade Association will be held this evening at 7 o'clock, at the course of. Find and Wood streets. The citizens generally are invited to be present, as business of public importance will be liad before the meeting. [123] WM. A. HILL, See'y,

For Rent. A LL that portion of my river bottom, lying between A the Pittsburgh and Braddock's Field Plank road and the river, supposed to contain about fifty acres; to which will be attached a two story Frame House, will an excellent cellar underneath, an Orchard. a Stable and Barn. It is in a high state of cultivation; and would be well calculated for Dairy or Gardening purposes. The facilities of getting to market are equal to any in the county, as the occupant will have his choice of the river; plank road or railread for his accommodation. No per-son need apply unless he can come well recommended for henesty, industry and sobriety. ja25:two WM. G. HAWKINS; For Rent.

New Stock of Planos. MRS. O. BLUME would respect Acw Stock of Planos. MBS. C. BLUME would respect-fully invite the attention of the pub-lie to her new and splendid stock of sale, among which are the celebrated Hamburg Planas; will the new improvement of the over strings, the la-test asd most improvement of the over strings, the la-test asd most improvement of the over strings, the la-test asd most improvement. Invented solely by them and by no others. They have been tried to be copied in this country, but unsuccessfully. Also, one. splendid 7 octave, double carred Pianos, Louis XIV sily, ande by Bacon & Raven, New York. Three 7 octave Pianos, nade by J. & C. Fisher, late Nauns & Fisher, New York; together with solid of our own maufacture, with motalic frame. BES. Yalentine's Day. TEBRUARY 14th. Three thousand and fity-siz dif-ferent kinds of Valentines. We have now receiv-ed and differ for siz, evens to ten dollara. Bookseliers and dealers in fancy goods, who wish as to supply them with Valentines, will please ofder them immediately, so as to get them in season. Bend, by all means, to the cheap book, new spaper and magazine establishment of HENRY MINER & CO. Ja23 No 32 Smitheld st. Pittehrerb.

HENRY MINER & CO. ja28 No 32 Smithfield st., Pittsburgh. Aliegheny and Butler Plank Road.

Amnsements.

THEATRE: JOSEPH FOSTER

ADMITTANCE-First Tier and Parquetic, 50 cents; Sec-ind and Third Tiere, 55 cents; Colored Gallery, 35 cents; Fivate Boxes, each, $1,00. Doors open at 64 o'clock, Curtain rises at 7 o'clock. 17 NO BILL RECEIVED.

CHABITY CONCERT: CHABITY CONCERT: A CONCERT OF SACRED MUSIC, for the benefit of the POOB, will be given on Tackagy evening, the ad Mirch, in the THIRD PRESS YTERIAN CHURCH, commencing at 74 ociock. PROGRAMME:

Awake the Harp, Oh! what Beanty, Native, Worth, Achieved is, the glorions work, On thee each living soul awaits, Hallelujah to the Feifer, MILE GUEAN GRAND GIFT CONCERT, AT LAFAYETTE HALL, ON THURSDAY EVENING, Forwary 13, 1551, for the banefit of the personed AND ALLGENET LA-mer's many scorerises, when she will be assisted by all the available eminent talent in the city. In the conres of the evening the following Prizes will be drawn for: e drawn for : 1st Prize-A splendid new Rosewood Plano, of 64 oc-ves. of one of the best New York manufactories, walge $400.

- $100. 2nd Prize—A spleadid new Guitar. 3rd Prize—A pair of handsoma Flower Vases. Tickets to be had at all the Music Stores. []a27;id

WILKINS HALLS. THE ALLEGHANIANS,

ESPECTFULLY announce that they will give a CONCERT on Monday cvening, February 36, a VILNIN HALL. Their programme will contain a choice selection of iongs, Dacites, Thios, Quarteris, &c. Tickets, 60 cents- to be had at the usual places and at oor open at 6} o'clock. Concert will commence at o'clock II > No postponement on account of the weather. A collection of Songs and Quartettes, us sing by the Lleghanians, car be had at the Concert Room. [127, ]

THE WORLD'S WONDER. THE WORLD'S. WONDER. DR. MORRIS has re-engaged. TITANIA, the Fairy Queen, for another weak. She is comidered thus predices carlosity of the Dwarf species in the world. The, Dr. has also parchased a live Aligator, six feet long, and has been in the Fountain for exhibition. Torms of Admission — To Museum and Titania; the fairy Queen, 25 cents. Children under ten years of age, half price. Hours of exhibition, from 10 o'clock A. M. till 10.P. M. ja25

Hallelujah to'the Father, PART II. The Morning-a Cantada, Rest. spirit, rest. The Marvellous Worke, The Marvellous Worke, Eve's Lamentation, Where are thy bowers, Grand Hallelojah Chorus, Tickets, 50 cents-to be bad at us mores of J. H. Mel y, H. Kleber, H. Richardson, and H. C. Stockjont. Th. tompy will be received at the door. [ja23] Mrs. C. Hofmann

from the mantle, and, uttering not a word, his heart; but we both glory in the sacrifibut pale and trembling motioned the Count | ces we make for the good of our country. de Beaumont to take the Empress in his I feel elevated in giving the greatest proof arms. She was still unconscious of every. of attachment and devotion that was ever thing, but began to murmur in tones of given on earth."

Such were the sentiments that were exanguish, "Oh; no you cannot do it. You pressed in public. But in private Joseph- rette of yesterday: would not kill me !" The Emperor led the way through a line surrendered herself to the unrestraindark passage to the private staircase which ed dominion of her anguish. No language conducted to the apartments of the Em- can depict the intensity of her wee. For press. The agitation of Napoleon seemed six months she wept so incessantly that her Means this moning, at my request, inserted in now to increase. He uttered some inco. eyes were nearly blinded with grief. Up, the Civil and Diplomatic Bill, an appropriation of herent sentences about a violent nervous on the ensuing day the council were assem. herent sentences about a violent nervous attack, and finding the starcase too steep and narrow for the Count de Beaumont to bear the body of the helpless Josephine unassisted he gave the light to an attend. imposing robes of state, but pailid, care, worm and wratched a Low transport pailid, care, worm and wratched a Low transport pailid, care worm ant, and supporting her himself they reach-ed the door of the bed, room. Nappleon monizing with the mournful scene, filled the then dismissed his male attendant, and lay-ing Josephine upon her bed, rang for her against a pillar, folded his arms upon his ing Post." waiting maid. He hung over her with an breast, and in perfect silence, apparently expression of the most intense affection lost in gloomy thought, remained motionand anxiety until she began to revive. But less as a statue. A circular table was plathe moment consciousness seemed return. ced in the centre of the apartment, and up. ing he left the room. Napoleon did not on this there was a writing aparatus of even throw himself upon his bed that night. gold. A vacant arm chair stood before He paced the floor antil the dawn of morn the table. Never did a multitude gaze uping. The royal surgeon, Corvisart, pas- on a scaffold, the block or the guillotine the night at the bedside of the Em. with more awe than the assembled lords press. Every hour the restless, yet unre-leating Emperor called at the door to inand ladies in this gorgeous saloon contemplated these instruments of a more dreadquire concerning her situation. ful execution.

At length the mournful silence was in-"On recovering from my swoon," says terrupted by the opening of a side door, and the entrance of Josephine. The palor tion to our predecessor in plank, called one day Josephine, "I perceived that Corvisart was in attendance, and my poor daughter Horof death was upon her brow, and the sub. to inform us that he was ready as usual. Having tense weeping over me. No! no! I can. mission of despair nerved her into a tem. no use for such "currency," we remarked, jocosely. not describe the horror of my situation during that night. Even the interest he af. porary calmness. She was leaning upon to our "patron," that he might as well bring us the arm of Hortense, who, not possessing fected to take in my sufferings, seemed to me additional cruelty. How much reason the fortitude of her mother, was entirely had I to dread becoming an Empress !" unable to control her feelings, but immedi-A fortnight now passed away, during which Napoleon and Josephine saw but litately upon entering the room burst into deposited in front of the office! We gave him which Napoleon and Josephine saw but lit-the of each other. During this time there sively. The whole assembly rose upon day! occurred the anniversary of the corona- the entrance of Josephine; all were moved tion and the victory of Austerlitz. Paris to tears. With that grace which ever diswas filled with rejoicing. The bells rang tinguished her movements, she advanced their merriest peals. In these festivals silently to the seat provided for her.-tinguished her movements, she advanced Josephine was compelled to appear. She Sitting down and leaning her forehead upon knew that the Sovereigns and Princes then | hor hand, she listened to the reading of the | State Capitol a few days since. The Sergeant. Simcox, James M'Claskey and Gen. James Lee. assembled in Paris, were apprised of her act af separation. Nothing disturbed the at Arms very properly removed the filthy puisance approaching disgrace; in all these rounds silence of the scene but the sobbing of Hor- from the hall. This is the right way to treat all The sense of the meeting being taken, it was f enjoyment she heard but the knell of tense, blending with the mournful tones of such worthless fellows. He has had his day. her own doom. And though a careful ob the reader's voice. Eugene, in the meanserver, in her moistened eye and palid time, had taken a position by his mother's cheek, would have observed indications of side. Silent tears were trickling down the

the secret woe which was consuming her cheeks of the Empress. heart, her habitual affability and grace, As soon as the reading of the act of separation was finished, Josephine for a moaration was finished, Josephine for a mo-ment pressed her handkerchief to her weeping eyes, and then rising, in clear and musical, but tremulous tones, pronounced the oath of acceptance. She then sat down, never, in public, for one moment, forsook her. Hortense, languid and horror-strick- ment pressed her handkerchief to her en, was with her mother. Eugene was also summoned from Italy by the melancholy duty attending the divorce. His first in the oath of acceptance. She then sat down, tercourse was with his mother. From the took the pen and affixed her signature to room he went directly to the Cabinet of the deed which surrendered the dearest Napoleon, and enquired of the Emperor if hopes and fondest ties which human hearts he had decided the question of a divorce can feel. Poor Eugene could endure this Napoleon, who was language no longer. His brain reeled, his with his mother. heart ceased to beat, and he fell lifeless most strongly attached to Eugene, made no reply, but pressed his hand as an ex-

that it was so. Eugene withdrew his hand, and said : and brother. It was a fitting termination "Sire, in that case, permit me to withdraw from your service." of this mournful but sublime tragedy. "How 1" exclaimed Napoleon, sadly, But the anguish of the day was not yet

"will you, Eugene, my adopted son, leave over. Josephine, half delirious with grief, had another scene still more painful to pass. "Yes, sire," Eugene firmly replied,through, in taking a final adieu of him who

"The son of her who is no longer Empress had been her husband. Josephine remaincannot remain Viceroy. I will follow my ed in her chamber in heart rending, speech mother into her retreat. She must now less grief, until the hour in which Napole find consolation in her children," on usually retired for the night. The Em-

Napoleon was not without feeling, peror, restless and wretched, had just pla. Tenrs filled his eyes. In a mournful voice ced himself in bed from which he had ejec. tremulous with emotion, he replied : "Eugene, you know the stern necessity the attendant was, on the point of leaving which compels this measure. And will you the room when the private door of his forsake me? Who, then-should I have a apartment was opened, and Josephine enson, the object of my desires and preserver | tered. Her eyes were swollen with grief, of my interests—who would watch over her hair dishevelled, and she appeared in the child when I am absent? If I die who all the dishabille of unutterable anguish. will prove to him a father? Who is to She tottered into the middle of the room, make a man of him?" and approached the bed-then irresolute-Bugene-was deeply affected, and taking ly stopping, she burst into a flood of tears. Napoleon's arm, they retired and converse A feeling of delicacy seemed for a moment ed a long time together.

to have arrested her steps-a consciousness The noble Josephine, ever sacrificing that now she had no right to enter the upon the subject.

pted by the Select and Common Councils, authorizing the Mayor to offer a reward of $500 for the arrest of incendiaries.

A Custom House in Pittsburgh. We find the following letter from our Representative in Congress, Mr. HAMPTON, in the Ga-

> HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Wathington, Jan. 22, 1851. S DEAR SIR :- The Committee of Ways as a specimen of national literature

site, and the erection of a Custom House and other public Offices in the city of Pittsburgh. I 1531,

If Mr. Hantron should and ceed in getting this ---- The BILGOO prize in the last Havaba lollery, we drawn an Mobile, one halt of it by F. Colin, a worthy, Create, and one forth each by two very respectable. There is no doubt that the Judicial Convention. important measure through Congress, we will printers, compositors in the office of the Mobile Adver-

Plank Road Meeting.

---- The forms and cance of the Maysville Post Eoy. The Editors and Printers present at the a little daily, were pred and saushed up generally on Franklin birth-day festival, had a great time of it the eight of the 20th instant, by some maliciaus mis-at Columbus. The speeches were eloquent, and one exception.

saw logs on subscription." being proposed, Mr. NICHOLS, of the Lima Argue, being loudly called that Ex-Gov. Ford is lying dangerously ill, at his resi dence at Chardon, or paralysis. for, denied that he had ever refused saw-logs, tan----- The earnings of the Madison Rail Road for i bark, hoop-poles, wolf scalps, deer-skins, corn. year cading the last day of December was $200,000 ginseng, feathers, bees wax, or any other such lite for the year previous, $243,000. The Directors declars tle notions, on subscription .- Cincinnati Eng. a dividend of 0 per cont, for the last six months.

This reminds us of an incident that occurred some years ago while we were editing a country

Agreeable to public notice, a large and respec paper in Ohio. A subscriber who had a saw table meeting of the citizens of Mt. Pleasant and adjoining townships, met by adjournment at the public house of Robert Tuton, in Hickory, Washsaw logs, and here the conversation ended. In a few days our friend came to town again, bringing Secretaries. with him a has sled load of saw logs, which were be seen by our Harrisburg correspondence, attempted to speak at a Temperance meeting in the

Very Appropriate I

About the best thing that has happened of late, occurred at the Art Union drawing night before last. Mrs. Swasser, of Pittsbargh, drow a news boy i It is generally known that Mrs. S. is the far-famed White, David Hay, Esq., and John Berry, jr., were chosen a committee to examine the ground ory, in Mt. Pleasant township, to the waters of Cross Creek, in Cross Creek township, and report

DI We congratulate "sister" Swissmeler upon her good lack. There will no doubt be a fabilee at think of it-the Editress of the Visitor has drawn a boy, and a news boy, at that !

upon the floor. Josephine and Hortense a printing establishment set up in the pententiary, and Washington Turnpike road, in Allegheny The printers have held a meeting, and recomthe insensible form of the affectionate son | mend a law-school also. This is a fair hit ! But

These "Ohio lawyers " who propose to degrade journeymen printers by having the State printing done in the Penitentiary, should be compelled to do the work themselves in that abode of felons 1

Cameron's man, poor little Garvin f the Mercer Press, is mad as a March bare 1 He des Post and the Pittsburgh papers generally for pubvotes over a column of his sickly paper to the

Resolved, That this meeting now adjourn. abuse of the editor of the Post. We cannot purted his most faithful and devoted wife, and sue such paltry game-it is not worth the powder that would blow it up !

William Simcox, Lysander Patterson, Secretaries. OPENING THE STATE CANALS .-- The Canal Commissioners have passed an order for opening the canals of the State on the 15th of February, if the weather permits. So says the Harrisburg Union.

EF The Committee on Public Buildings of the two years, from the 4th of March next : Houses have not yet been able to agree upon a plan for the extension of the Capitol, ordered by Congress last session, though frequent joint meetings have been held writing a coincily, which is highly praised by the papers Districts, will be the most important subjects of the Session. A short time are they had extraordinary cold There is an effort on foot to abolish the Reven reather at Vera Cruz, during which the thermometer ne Board, but it will certainly fail. fell to 60 des. Such a thing had not been known since The Democratic Caucus took the proper view ---- Tor New Orleans papers state that the trial o of the difficulties existing at present in the State Gen. Henderton was again postpoued, on the 15th, it consequences of the continued indiposition of one > will be held at Harrisburg. Yours, &c. SPRIG

Cruz, with Senara Barill, as prima donna, and Senores

1. O. O. F. IN Outo .- The R. W. Grand Lodge o Ohio 1. O. O. F., at its session in Cincinnati, on Tuesday last, made the following choice for officers thereof for the ensuing year .

M. W. Grand Master,-Samuel Craighead, of Lodgo No. 10, Dayton. R. W. Dep. Grand Master,--Spencer Shears, of No. 59 Ashtahu R. W. G. Warden .- W. F. Stater, of No 46, Un R. W. G. Secretary .- Alex. E. Glens, of No. 23, R. W. G. Treasurer .- Mark P. Taylor, of No. 3,

LIDERTY IN FRANCE .- A political condemnation has just taken place in Paris, which shows that the Indiciary of France is completely subservient to the ington County, Pa., on Thursday, Jan. 23d, 1851. despotic government which now rules there, under Gen. JAMES LEE was chosen President. Col. the name of " Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity." C. BORLAND and THOMAS BUCHANAN, Vice Presi-The following account of the matter is given by the dent; William Simcox and Lysander Patterson Paris correspondent of the National Intelligencer: "A chemist of Paris and son (a student of medi-cine) were charged before the Court of Assizes with an offence against the perion of the President of the Republic, consisting in the distribution of copies of a plaster cast bearing the inscription, "The Bon-lougne Oyster, 1840." The caricatore represented a rock, apon the summit of which are disclosed a The minutes of the last meeting being read, the Committee reported the road altogether practica. ble. The meeting was addressed by Col. Ritchie, of Allegheny County, on the subject of thorough-Joe Barker. This mass of corruption and profanity, as will John Moore, of Mt. Pleasant, in favor of a R.Road in Large gaping oyster. Within the shell appeared the caricature d likeness of M. Louis Napoleon Bonacaricatored likeness of M. Louis Nappleon Bona-parte. There was also a head with the onormous nose, the small eyes, the bushy moustache; and the famous cocked hat of the Emperor. For the concep-tion and distribution of this willess and harmless piece of fuo, the father and son were sentenced each preference to a Plank Road. David Hay, Esq., David M'Connell, Cornelius Borland, William addressed the meeting in favor of a Plank Road. two years' imprisonment, and 8600 find. The de-feadants' counsel begged a postponement of the trial, to attend the bed of a dying father. It was refused; the trial was ordered, and the sentence pronounced without the intervention of a two unanimously in favor of a Plank Road, with only without the intervention of a jury. Gen. James Lee, Moj. James M'Claskey, Wm.

-----

Hon. JERSE D. BRIGHT .- The Indiana State Sentinel says of Senator Bright's re-election, most justly: from Venice, in Cecil township, by way of Hick-"Bight is inder brights re-election, most justy: "Bight is inderthed for his election, more than anything else, to the bold and independent stand which he took in relation to the Compromise meas-ures of the last easion of Congress. In the meas-ures that were adopted, and which we beliave will to the next meeting. David Hay, Esq., of Cecil, James M'Claskey, to the next meeting. David Hay, Esq., of Cecil, James M'Claskey, of Mt. Pleasant; Capt. Lysander Patterson, of Cross Creek; William S. White, of Mt. Pleasant, and other distinguished statesmen of the two great Cross Creek; William S. White, of Mt. Pleasant, "Swisavale," on account of this great ovent I Only think of it—the Editress of the Visitor has drawn a boy, and a news boy, at that 1 The Ohio lawyers in the Legislature wont a printing establishment set up in the penitentiary. The one of the Legislature wont a printing the penitentiary. The Ohio lawyers in the Legislature wont a printing establishment set up in the penitentiary. The one of the Visitor has drawn a the visitor has drawn

The printers have held a meeting, and recom-mend a law-school also. This is a fair hit! But we opine that a printing press would do more good to the convicts than a legal school, which might, sharpen the wits of those who have already outwitted others.—Wheeling Argus. tion of the mouth of Cross Creek. It is agreed that when this meeting adjourns they adjourn to meet at Hickory on Thursday the 6th day of February next, at 12 o'clock M.

Resolved. That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers, and published in our

JAMES LEE, President. CONVELIUE BOBLAND, Vice Pres'ts. amount, two or three errands after it would cost to tor more than its whole value. How. HENNY Dongs RE-ELECTED .- The Wush

In a woman does not receive a compliment in ington Union publishes the following telegraphic Tar II a woman does not receive a compliment in goad parts depend upon it, you have expressed your-self in a very buging manuper. There are few wo men who do not know every charm that they posses and they are ever ready to appreciate any flattery o, it. A compliment should always be indirect, so that the pleasing allusion must be drawn by inference. Very a series pointed and direct it wounds the saw. espatch, announcing the re-election of the Hon. HENRY DODDE to the United States Senate for six "Governor Dodge elected on the first ballot : | Dodge, 69; Doty; 7."

ieave for Texassoon.
The Maxachusetts Anti-Slavery Society com-meuced its annual meeting of three days at the Tremoni Temple, Biscon, on Wednesday, Francis Jackson in the chair. The principal speakers were Wendell Phillips, C. C. Burleigh and Mr. Cluer.
An Italian opera company is performing at Vera imported into the United States. 756 W M. Green Teas equally good, at the same. All Teas at this establish-mant are repacked fresh from the original chests, which is much superior to package Teas, which, in many in-stances, have been pat up to from two to three years, and you might as well imagine that Hag would keep as well in a small bundle as in a since, as suppose Tea will keep as well in a small package as in the original chest. jav3

81.25 SI :0 AND SI 75 PER GALLON .- Tayom had no jurisdiction over the subject. Public where is no doubt that they low of the subject. Public where is no doubt that the Indicated of the subject.

Dissolation. Jia Tills partnership heretofore existing between the sub-termination of the asyle of Bichbaum, Mikendry & Co., in the Foundry business, (known as, the "Mars Foundry,") was dissolved on the 20th inst, by munal consent, and having sold out all their interest to Mesers. Cochran, MBride & Co., take pleasure in recommending them respectfully to the pattornage of our friends and former customers. The business of the late firm will be settled by. Wm. Bichbaum & Co. WM. MIRENDRY, YM. MIRENDRY, SANUEL BARNES. Philoburgh, Jan. 25-ja23:1md&Auw

Pittsburgh, Jan. 25-ja29:1md&4m

Co-Partners hip. THE -ubscribers have associated themselves togeth U under the style of COCHRAN, M'BRIDE & CO., 1 the purpose of carrying on the Foundry and Wr fron business in all their varieties. Having purch

Iron business in all their varieties. Having and in fugn the establishment formerly owned by, Richbaum, M Kendry & Co., and hnown as the "Mars Foundry," they are prepared to execute orders for Castings and Wrough are prepared to execute orders for Castings and Wroug from Work of all descriptions, and would be pleased receive a share of public patronage.

JAMES COCHRAN. WM, F. M'BRIDE, GEO. BEALE, Jr., C. J. AGNEW, Pitisburgh, Jan. 20.

Jan. 30. Hops Foundry. Grongs Brate, Ja., C. J. Aostor. Santo, Eich JAMES COCHEAN, GE WM. F. MIBRIDE, C. COCHRAN, MIBRIDE, & CO., succ Anas Cornax, Grones Brate, re., WM. F. MiBards, C.J. Aohaw, O'CLIRAN, -M'BRIDE, & CO., ancessors to Eich-Cupied by Wm. Nobiel, No. 137 Front Street, one door vents improved as Phitsburgh, Manufacturers of Dona-van's improved patent Cooking Stoves, Cooking Ranges, Coal and Wood Stoves, Fancy Stoves, Cooking Ranges, Coal and Wood Stoves, Sancy Stoves, Cooking Ranges, Coal and Wood Stoves, Sancy Stoves, Cosking Ranges, Coal and Wood Stoves, Sancy Stoves, Cosking Ranges, Threshing Machines, Mill Geatring, Pipe Castings, tec: Also - Vartrs, Vartr. Doors, Irons Raurse, and Wacotari Rans, Wons of every description. Eja23:Imd&Atus
WORKS ON BOOK-KEEPING.-Duff's Commet-cial Book-keeping ; Blansk for the above werks. Just teceived, a large supply, and for sale by JOHN H. MELLOR, 1923.
REEN APPLES.-19 bbls received, In prime order.

GREEN APPLES-10 bbls received, in prime order, aud for sale by

THE FURNITURE and FIXTURES of the Red Lion

L Hotel, St. Clair street, with the lease. Terms eas Apply to R. S. DAUX. [ja27:3tdaltw*) Proprietor. Hom copathic Books. UST PUBLISHED and for sale at the Book store of the undersigned-" Hering's Domastic Physician-Revised; with additions from the author's manuscriptor the 7th German edition. Containing, also, a mubular in-dex of the medicines and the discusses in which they are used in the medicines and the discusses in which they are used.". Cases of medicine for the above work, Arnica Plas-ter, Arnica Flowers and Tincture, Sugar of Milk, Glob-ules, a full sapply of all the medicines used by physi-cians in the different delusions and triumrations, with all the works published on Homeopathy, slways on hand. omcopathy, always on hand. J. G. BACKOFEN, pathle Maart

Sola Agent for the Homeopathic Medicines and Books, ja27.41da2tw. No. 310 Liberty street. (Gazette copy and charge to J. G. Backolep.)

To flaster Carpenters. A STOUT, healthy, soure LAD-aged 17-is desirous ofleaning the Carpentering business, by apprentice-ship or otherwise. For particulars, enquire of F.S. M. Namara, Mercanile Library, 4th street, or MFGrews Furniture Store, Federal street, Allegheny. [ja27:11

Ber Somm astonnding developments have been made in Boston relative to the recent disappear ance of a yourg girl, the daughter of a highly residue of a vourg girl, the daughter of a highly residue and expressed himself ind ifferent as to whether his daughter married a white man or as ownether his daughter married a white man or as ownether his daughter married a white man or as ownether his daughter married a white man or as ownether his daughter married a mont of bases with a black man, married him, and in this core, and carried to her father. She is now in the Lunative for of Policies issued ---- 3.953 Amount of responsion to fusion for only on account of the responsion with the beat due of a subject kind, in small risks, and a large proportion at large proportion and the Amount of policies issued ---- 3.953 Amount of responsion to fusion for guarantee premiums -845,496 33 laige lites, and also, on both the Stock and Mutual plan, it not only possesses the cheappens and accommodation of both methods, but entitles the insured to a participa-tion in the profits. It is under the control of the following Directors :-J Rutherford. A. J. Gillstt, John B. Packer, Samuel T. Jones, Alonzo A. Carrier, Philo C. Sedgwick, Robert Klotz. A. J. GILLETT, See'y. A. A. CARBIER, Actuary. UR27: J blished on Monday. The Pianos used on this occasion will be farmahed r. Mr. Kleber, from the celebrated manufactory o What Alexis, non the cerevision manufactory of the stores of H, ID Tickets 50 ets - to be had at the stores of H, Kleber, Thid street; Wm. Mt. Horsh and James A. McKnight, Market street, and at the door on the evenut of the performance. D Doors open at 7 o'clock ; Concert to comment at half-past 7, ja25:td

its. The Programmes will b

Vigilant Boiree. THE members of the VIGILANT FIRE COMPANY would respectfully inform their mumerons friends ind the citizens generally, that they wilf give their Vinu annual Soirce on Friday Brening, January 31, 1851, at he Latoyette Assembly Rooms.

The Supper on this occasion will be prepared by the iremen's favorite caterer, Davis Jourson, Esquisite jalo:122

Anction Hales

P. M. DAVIS, Auctionces VAUABLE BOOKS AT AUCTION-Dr Wednes, day, Tureday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, January 29th, 30th, 31st, and February Lat, at 7 ociock at the Commercul Sales Rooms, corner of Wood, and Fith strets, will be sold by Gatalogne, a very variable collection of the finest Europeän and American editions of standard works or Law, Medicina, Dentistry, Theol-ogy, Atchitecture, the fine arts, &c., &c. Splendidly filtustrated works; rate and valuable books from a private library, &c., &c. ALSO-1 case superior Amputating Instruments; I full and complete set of Dental Instruments; of the beat make. For particulars, see Catalognes. ja25 PiAL DAVIS, Anetyr.

make- For particulars, see Catalognes. 1925 Pi AL DAVIS, Aueur. OLOTHING, CLOTHS, FINE SHIETS, &c., mi Aue. tion.-On Friday morning, 31st last, 41 10 oclock, at the Commercial Sales Rooms, corner of Wood and Fifth streets, will be sold without reserve... I argo and well selected stock for fashionably made Clothing, com-prising a great variety of Vests, Panis, Jackets, Dress and Frock Coats, Overcoats, Bang-ups, &c., 50 doz find Sbirts, broad and narrow plaits, French embroidered, de. Super, Franch and Knglish Broad Cloths, Besvat and Fild Cloths, assorted colors; Cassimers, Tweeds, Statinets, Jeans, Silk Serge, Alpaces, Beaverteen, Li-nings, Tuilors' trimmings, &c., 40; The Trade are invited to extamine the assortment. [Ja23] P. M. DAVIS, Aucti-

Real Estate for Sale THE undersigned offers for sale a large number of valuable building loss, and some very desirable sites for manufactories, in the borough of Birmingham; losa-ied near the new Pablic School House and English Lin-theran Church. The rapid growth of Birmingham in population and The rapid growth of Birmingham in population and manufacturing wealth, and the reasonable prices at which lots will be sold, will render them a safe and pro-fitable investment. Thile perfect: Terms frofinable. For particulars and terms enquire of the and estigned at the office of Geo. F. Glimore, Beq. on Grant esteret Pittsburgh, between 3d and 4th streats, or of William Symmes and N. Patterson; Eegers, at their offices in Birmingham. [ian27] MOSES F. EAZON.

ja27:6tw

Ladies' Writing and Drawing Oiass. A PRIVATE CLASS ROOM, exclusively for Ladies, is now open in connection with Daffs Mercanile College, in the room opposite Mr. Nelson's Dafaerrean Gallery. The class will be under the direction of M. J. Gouinloch, from New York, an experienced teacher and subhar of Hours, to to 12 A. M. GOLD HUNTING WATCHES—Just received and for saie at reduced prices, twelve splendid, full jewelled gold hunting patout lever Watches—assorted also, six very fine twenty lewelled; real tothson; Gold patent lever Watches. Also, twelve indics' gold Watches, of fine quality and assorted sizes and patients—all warranted. W. W. WILSON, Watch Makor, fine worted sizes and patients—all warranted. 1225 Corner of Market and Fourth ass.

Ja25 corner of Market and Fourth as. Splendid New Piance. H KLEBER takes pleasure in ancoancing that he celebrated make of Nurse & Clarr and Donlind, New York, which, with hose on hand, from the most elegant, varied and extensive sick ever offered in thisely. Among others, ione splendid 7 octave 'Jouho carred Plano, Louis XIV style, with the new improvement, of the over stilling, the latter and most important improv-ment, to be found only on Nuns & Clark's Flanos. Also, two superb Kollar Attachment Planos. N. B. -An extensive for of New Music, embrancing Jenny Lind's, and the choicest new Songs, Polkas Waltzes, &c. SIGN OF THE GOLDEN HARP. Ja25 No. 101 Third streen.

Cherry Control Control

Commercial College CORNER OF MARKET AND THIND STREETS. CHARTERED A. D. 1850; the only chartered Insu-tution of the kind in Pennsylvania. Faculty. Jour Frankow, Principal Insuration in the science of Accounts. O. K. CHARMENIN, Professor of Penmanskip, Mercan-tile computation, Ec. ALXX. M. WATSON, Esq., Lecturer on Commercial Law.

