Feb. 1550. Dr. KRYER: --You have asked me the effects of your Pettorni Syrup in my own case. I had a very bad cough during part of last winter. It began with a feel-ing of fullness in the head; increased exerction and suf-fasion of tears: together with hoarseness, pain in the breast, and the other accompaniments of what has been denominated "Tyler Grippe." I took: two bolies of your Pectoral Syrap, according to the directions on the bottle; and I am now, and have been over since, entire-ly free from any of the unpleasant symptoms enumera-ted above. You have my permission to publish this for the good of your sales, as well as the Pablic, if you de-sire to do so. Very respectfully, yours, &c. G. FOLLANBER.

WHEN the theory of the circulation of the blood was established, the secret spings of vitality moderstood that the food we eat, was converted into blood, which repaired the waste of the animal machine; the food is fael, which keeps at a life heat the internal fires that warm and invigorate our inner man. The blood is an electric fluid which carries this heat to overy ramification of the body, even to the etriemilies of the hair and horay nail. While the blood is thus the seat of life, it is also the seat of disease. Food gives the body strength, Brandreth's pills give blood the necessary power to throw out from itself all imparities, thus ren-dering they kept close to ature's lawsia the management of their bodies, they would be fewer religious creeds; and if they kept close to ature's lawsia the management of their bodies, they would require little medicine. As men grow intelliligent they will become wister and hap-pier; even now, their wisdom is proved by the fact that, when aickness assalis them, they use Brandreth's year-mal for they kept closes they may becued. One dozen in the beginning is more potent for good, than a dozen after the sitchness is fixed in the system. In colds, conghs, asthma, thermstim, costiveness, favers, and in all scute, heavy or deorested palms, their effects will be found begond all praise. Three or five will act like a charm, often curing a dangerous malady at once, sa-ving mouths of sickness and the ovils thereunto attend-ing.
