HORRIBLE AFFRAY, ALL FROM A KIES.—Capt. J. M. Martin has given us some particulars of an affray which occurred at Shirt-tail Bend, Miss. E. P. Johnson, a planter, gave a party, at which Seth Cox and lady, Dr. Glibert, and many others, were present. During the evening a son of Mr. J., who had but lately returned from school, avowed his intention to kiss every lady present. Accordingly he commenced by kissing Mrs. Cox. Mr. C. became angry at this, used harsh language towards the young man, and slapped his face. This led to a general fight. Bowie knives were drawn, and in the affair Mr. Cox, Gilbert, and young Johnson were dangerously wounded, and three or four others severely. Dr. Gilbert was cut in the head, and the blood gushed from the wound to the ceiling. Mr. Cox's brother had intimated that if his brother recovered he would settle the difficulty. We believe Seth Cox and lady are both from this part of the country, and well known here.—Louispille (Ky.) Jour., Jan. 20. Its power of borrowing is FROM MR. LAWRENCE .- Our Minister in London inet, President Fillmore invited him to a seat in it, but he declined to accept. This compliment by President Fillmore could not have been offered to one more deserving of it than Mr. Geyer, and we know that his declining to accept it, though he was controlled by reasons highly honorable to him, and entirely satisfactory to his friends, was a source of much regret. His election now to the Senate of the United States is made under circumstances thus writes to a friend in New York: Counterfeit gold dollars, well calculated to decive the unwary, are in circulation. On examination, however, they neither look nor feel like the genuine, and the letters and devices want the sharp, well defined character of the true coin. They are made of pewter, or some other base metal, plated over with gold. A little caution will prevent the circulation of these little deceivers.
