Edith was, indeed, not possessed of the brillian besuty of her cousin, yet her face was mild and intelligent. When her features were of rest ther was a sad, mournful expression upon them which told of early sorrow. She now stood trembling at the door, for though she longed to see the brow ther of her deceased mother, yet, being unused to -company, she dreaded entering the room. She went in, and not being introduced, she stood for a

Jayne, Philadelphia: My Dear Sir-We are now in great want of your Medical Preparations. Your CARMINATIVE BALSAM, is an invaluable Medicine in this country in Bowel Complaints, and has been used in all our Missions with the most granifying success. I have known it in many cases to act like a charm. Your SANATIVE PILLS are my Sheet Anchor. The best medicine for my Liver Complaint and pain in the side, that I have ever used. They are in great demand, and we are entirely out of thom. We need five handled hores of them. Bro. Beecher says we could use a thourand borzs yearly among our people to great ad-avanage. I have used your TONIC VERMIFUGE as a Toxic in INTERMITTENT FEVER, with the most complete success. I think it was once the means of sa-ving my own son.
