visit to the new establishment of Mesara, Colema Hailman & Co., which is situated on Duquesne Wa and Etna streets, in the Fifth Ward, and could not but admit the excellent style in which they have gone into operation. The building is 92 feet by 215, and was built by Messrs. Boyd and Murdoch. It is admirably adapted for the purposes intended. No convenience is wanting, and every thing has been done with an eye to cheapness and economy. The machinery was constructed by Measre, Knap & Co., under the supervision of Mr. Richard Savery, s mechanic who has few superiors in the City. The Duquesne Works manufacture iron in all its
