

LOCAL MATTERS.

One Franco Ball.—We are in error yesterday in stating that the receipts of the old Franco Ball were $1,200 or 1,400.

It appears that there were in attendance two hundred and seventy couple. The actual receipts being $675—expenses $362 $74; making the net $303 $74, which goes to the widows and orphans fund of those lodges which took a part in getting it up.

—Holiday Inn.—Celebration, and Whig Review for February, have all been at Holmes, Literary Depot, Third street, opposite Post Office, and a new supply of the following works: The Women of Israel—Tale for Mothers and Daughters—Mother's Recompense—by Grace Agnes; Henry Smeaton—by F. P. R. James, Esq.; and Shakespeare—by Mrs. Southworth.

—John Brown.—John Brown, and all the persons connected with his notorious house of ill-fame, were yesterday arrested by the Mayor, charged with robbing a man there on Sunday night of three hundred dollars. They were held to bail for their appearance to-day before Justice of the Peace, at 2 o'clock, when they will have another hearing.

—Interest Arrest.—A young girl, about 19 years of age, from Pittsburgh, by the name of Mary Hill, has been arrested in Philadelphia, where she has done very conspicuously in the thiefing line, and succeeded, the most adroit manner, in perfecting a great number of robberies.

—We refer our readers to the Illinois Journal of Commerce, for a detailed advertisement of a gentleman's furnishings, recently opened on Fourth st. He has a large and extensive assortment of every thing in his line; and those wishing to purchase, cannot find a more clever gentleman to deal with.

—Another attempt was made, on Saturday, to burn down the home of Mrs. Totten, in the Sixth Ward. It certainly may be safe to watch who has access to the house. We hope that no examination will be made, and the villain brought to justice.

—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that a very fine dwelling house, on Clark Avenue, is for sale. Those in the habit of dwelling there will do well to examine it, as it can be purchased at a bargain price.

—Tragedy.—A house was performed last night in a full house. The mystery was most gory and costly, and is gotten up in good style. There is no superior in this piece and he was greeted with the quiet burst of applause.

—At the Park.—We are glad to see our much esteemed friend, Reese C. Fleeson, Local Editor of the Dispatch, who has been absent for some time, again at the post.

—Our sale of Dry Goods will be continued at the same or Main street, between Fifth and Liberty street, this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and at liberty gas light this evening.

—The alarm of fire on Sunday, night about 10 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a frame dwelling, in the corner of Fulton and Prospect st., which was entirely consumed.

—On Sunday, a carriage, in which were two ladies and a gentleman, was captured on Cool Hill. One of the ladies had her arm broken. The others were unharmed.

—On Friday night, a man by the name of Bell, from the country, was knocked down on the wharf, and robbed of a silver watch and three dollars in money.

—Our fellow-citizen, Mr. Biddle, Esq., has just returned from playing a very successful engagement, in Baltimore, where he will shortly appear.

—Temperance Conversion.—The Allegany County Temperance Convention meets to-day, at 2 o'clock, in the Second Presbyterian church.

—Charley Foster Benefit comes off on Wednesday evening. Every body will be there. He is richly made a good humor, and he will have it.

—New Paper.—We understand that a new paper will make its appearance in this city next week. It is to be a "Police Gazette."

—Drowned.—The son of James Hudon, a small boy, was drowned in Chartiers Creek, last week, while skating. His body has not been recovered.

—Appointed.—Mr. John Wyne, of this city, has been appointed State Agent, on the Portage Road, by the Canal Commissioners.

—The Fair for the benefit of Passavant's Hospital takes place this evening, at Wilkins' Hall.

—A man has picked his pocket, in the Diamond market, on Saturday last, of $20.

—The "Street Brigade" was yesterday, on duty, performing most valuable services.

—There were several ordinary cases before the Mayor yesterday morning.

—We had quite a hall storm yesterday afternoon.

—Pleasant Masses.—The judges of the County of Allegheny, and the judges of the Court of Common Pleas, will be present at the Masses, on Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock, in the Second Ward, city of Pittsburg.

—The post office, and common council, have decided that the Ordinance, enacting a fine of $100 for the payment of warrants on the City Treasurer, for the payment of warrants on the City Treasurer, will be repealed.

—An Ordinance.—Be it enacted, &c. That no such ordinance be passed, as will prohibit the payment of warrants on the City Treasurer, for the payment of warrants on the City Treasurer.
