OCSITTE WARD TOTAL ABSTIMENCE SOCIETY .- Thi Society was organized on Friday evening, February 7th, and a Committee was appointed at that meeting to draft a Constitution and Bys-Laws for the gov ernment of the Society.

This Committee reported a Constitution and Bye Laws at a meeting in the School House of the Sixth Ward, on Friday evening, 14th inst. Their report was accepted, and the Constitution and Bye-Laws were adopted. This Society, being the first one organized since the great excitement commenced, i now fully under way The following persons were chosen officers:

Secretary-Wm. Getty. Treasurer-George Armor. Business Committee-W. S. bourne and John Scott. -W. S. Thompson, G. Lam. The Society will hold a meeting on Thursday iezt, 201h inst., when a Lecture will be dolivered by the Rev. Samuel Williams. All the friends of emperance are invited to attend. Place of meoting, Sixth Ward School room. Thtathr.--Mr. McDonough's benefit on Saturday night was truly flattering to him-nover was the house more crowded, and he was greeted with the sost rapturous applause. After the first piece was over he was called out in front of the curtain, when he returned his thanks to the audience for their marked and feeling appro A friend then, as the representative of a portion of McDonough's many admirers, presented to him a beautiful gold watch and chain, as a testimonial of their regard for him as an actor, and their esteem for him as a gentleman. To which Mr. McDonough replied in a very graceful speech. Dr. Hollick commences his series of Lectures to gentlemen this evening, and those who wish to hear them, should attend early and procure a ticket. On Friday evening the audience to the introductory Lecture was a perfect jam, and several hundreds went away, unable to gain admission. The Ladies are invited (free) this afternoon. Phillips' Benefit ought to draw a crowded house. He is a clever actor, an able stage mana. ger and a good fellow. To-night the " Mysterious Knockiogs" will be explained, and Mr. Richardson, the celebrated tragedian, will perform his great part of Richard III. Let all patrons of the Drama with ness this rich treat. BO Mr. THOMAS N. SMITH, Watchman on the Old Allegheny Bridge, we deem it proper to say, is not the person whose name was alluded to in our paper of Saturday, as being concerned in the many highway robberies which are daily occurring in our City. Watchman Smith is an honest, orderly, respectable citizen.
