THE Canal being now open, the proprietors of this long established Line are again in their old stands, receiving and forwarding Merchandize and Produce as heretofore, and with the promptness, certainty and safety peculiar to their system, and which has rendered it the favorite route for shipping. Transhipping is avoided, with its consequent delays and probability of damage.

Merchandize and Produce shipped East or West, and Bills of Lading forwarded free of charge for commission, advancing or storage. Having no interest directly or indirectly in steamboats, that of the owners is solely consulted when shipping their goods.
