LOCAL MATTERS.

ROBBERY AND ARSON .-... The store of Wm. Bu chanan, corner of Wylie and Chatham streets, was entered yesterday morning about 1 o'clock, by burglars, and after having taken goods to their satisfaction, they set fire to the store. They effected an entrance through the cellar, and when they came to the door which led into the store, they bored the latch off with an augur. Mr. Buchanan and his family reside in the same building, and elept, we believe, immediately above the store. The fire was first discovered by a Watchman, and when the alarm was raised Mr. Buchanan Jumped from his bed and started down stairs, but he jumped from his bed and started down stairs, but he suffocate, him, and he had to retreat to his own spartment sgain, from which he and his family were home. J. D. Fark-Dear Sir: As I have a deep commisseration for the afficied, permit me to give yau a brief kistory of my afficients, and the benefits derived from the use of "Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry." In July, 1844, I was a tatucked with a faver of a typhold character, which left me in a very debilitated state, when in the following winter I wuss taken with a savero cold, which reduced me to such an extent as to give me the appearance of a confirmed consumptive. Tlabored under a severe cough, expectorated a great deal, and was troacked with a fover on a typhole character, which left me in a very debilitated state, when in the following winter I twos taken with a savero cold, which reduced me to such an extent as to give me the appearance of a confirmed consumptive. Tlabored under a severe cough, expectorated a great deal, and was troached with cold feet and night sweats. I hiso frequently raised blood from my langs. I continued in this state, gradually sinking under the disease, antil Jannary, 1647, until I was a gain attacked with fore. My extermilies, especially my feet, were constantly cold, and almost lost the ide of out taking medicine preseribed by physiclans and try. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and from the first week that I commenced taking it learn date a gradual recovery. I continued its use six months, at the end of which time I was cured, and have no doubt, but nine cases out of the will be blessed with renewed health as a law to the set afficied I have no doubt, but nine cases out of the will be blessed with tenewed health as a bave been.
