ON Tuesday afternoon, July 23, 1850, the undersigned were called upon by Messrs. Lippencott & Barr, to witness an honest and fair test of one of their Phœnix Safes. The furnace being prepared, the Safe was filled with books, papers and some money; when the door of the Safe was closed and the fire kindled at a quarter past 2 o'clock, and in a short time the Safe was red hot, and continued till half past 5 o'clock, being about four and a half hours, when the contents were taken out to their satisfaction that the time occupied with such heat was sufficient. The furnace was then pulled down, Safe cooled, and door opened—the books, papers and money in fine horses, and any number of the best carriages, &c., &c., which will be prompt, punctual, and reasonable. aug19-y
