valuable lot of ground situated in the borough of Lawreneveille, (adjoining Rev. Lev's Churchip having a

Austin and Gardiner were brought before Ald. Mafor and committed, having recovered from them over $400. There were $300 in tens on the State Bank of Ohio, 17 threes on the same Bank, and 6 tens on the Minera' Bank of Pottsville. One of the parties stated that he had sold on the day before $1000 to a W. G. M'CARTNEY, Auctioneer. Since the arrest of these men, Christian Heiber Blifee the arrest of these men, Christian Heiber has made information before Ald Major that Austin had passed a counterfelt $10 bill on him, some time in January last, in Stewartstown.

The Banks and Brokers of the city, and indeed the whole community, are deeply indebted to Mr. For and those who assisted him in thus ferreting out and arresting these men who are flooding our community with this counterfeit money, and it being executed in a manner so well calculated to deceive the liperperienced, it is very important that it should be suppressed, and the issuers punished.

These gentlemen receiving no reward whatever, and no salary for thus ferreting cut and bringing to satice these great offenders, we think it no more fithan an act of justice that the Brokers and citizens should compensate them liberally for the loss of time and considerable expense to which they have been subjected to in breaking up this gang.

W. G. McCARTNEY, Auct. horse. It appears that while in Wheeling, considerable exertion was made to retain him-indeed, we understand that they went so far as to offer him 8250 if he would give a deed for himself. This he declined, as he thought it would be jumping out of JAMES MCKENNA, Auctioneer. the frying pan into the fire.

We are surprised that such a course would be pursued by our Virginia neighbors. Had their attempt to retain the negro heen successful, they might well know that it would have the most mischievous effect, and would have recoiled upon themselves with ten-fold force. They should be exceedingly careful how they proceed in such cases, if for no other reason than when they utter complaint in regard to the difficulty of securing their plaint in regard to the difficulty of securing their flugitives, it may, at least, be characterized by a spirit of fairness.

J. D. Parker Barkston of Wild Cherry of advising you of the benefit that I have derived from the stage of the byth at terrible scotures, Consumption, in May last. The attack was truly horrifying to me, for five of my family (my brothers and si-ters) had died of Consumption. I was afflicted with acarly all of the worst features of the disease: I had a distressing cough and expectorated a great deal of blood, heetic fever, severe pains in the side and chest; cold chills, alternating with flushes of heat stad captons night sweals

I was under the care of a skilled physician from the time I was taken sick until houst six weeks since, being then about helpless, and my friends considering my date, hopeless, or at least beyond the scane of the skills advised the use of Water's Haissam of Wid Cherry.

I have tuten four hottes of the medicine, and now I have taken four bottes of the medicine, and now consider myself perfectly well. I make this statement to induce others that are afflicted as I have been, to make trial of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, which tomedy has, under the blessing of Providence, restored my health.
