Special Notices. The press has lately haid before the world another mass of scientific and other testimony to the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Livettwort, Tar, and Canchalagua, as a cure for GONSUNPTION in its end Canchalagua, as a cure for GONSUNPTION in its end lier stages and of its value as a specific for Coughs; Colds and other Pulmonary Diseases. Among the names its endorsers we note those of Dr. Cox, late a Professor in the Cincinniati Medical College; Dr. W. J. Richards, of that city; Dr. R. H. Wilson, of Gallin Co., Ohio, and many other professional men of high standing. Learned men of character and eminence only make such statements as the above have done, upon the strongest grounds. There can, therefore, be no longer a dcubt, that this preparation is, under Providence, a sovereign specific in Pulmonary Complaints. The pamphle to be had of Agents contains further testimony. R. LARZETTE'S JUNG CORDIAL, or Procreative Elixi, prescribed as an effectian restorative in cases of debility, impotency or barrenners, and ull irregularities of nature. It is all that it professes to bewiz: Nature's great restorative, and remedy for those in the married state without offspring. It is a certain care for seminal emissions, general debility, glect, weakness of the genital organs, nervous affections, leacorthea or whites. As a vigorating medicine it is unequalled. Also, a certain remedy for inclpient Consumption, indigestion, loss of muscular energy, physical lassitude, femule weakness, debility, &c. It is warranted to please the user in any of the above complaints, and is of priceless value to those without offspring.

To spread wide the blessings of this medicine, I have spointed Messrs, Judson & Co., of the city of New York, in the United States of America, my sole agents for its sale; and none can be genulne unless it comes through them, and their signatures are on the wrapper.

Massrs-Sanford & Park-I take this opportunity o informing you of a most remarkable care performed on me by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the year 1840 I was taken with the inflammation of the bowels, which I aboved under for all weeks, when I gradually recovered. In the fail of 1841 was attacked with a severe cold, which seated itself upon my lungs, and for the space of three years I was, confined to my bed. I tried all kinds of medicines and every-variety of aid without benefit; and thus? wearled along until the winter of 1846, waent heard of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

My friends persuaded me to give it a trial, though I had given up all hopes of recovery, and had prepared myself, for the change of another world. Through their solicitations I was induced to make use of the genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. The effect was truly and after having spent four of five hundred dollars to no approse, and the blessing of God rest upon the proprietors of so valuable a medicine as Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
