All our fears of a dull political summer an now at an end! The call for a Scott meeting planned and set on foot by Gov. JOHNSTON'S pet and office holder, JAMES W. BIDDLE, Editor of the Pittsburgh American, has caused a terrible flare-up in the ranks of Whiggery hereabouts. The American having been selected as the organ of the Scott men, at once excited the envy and jealousy of the venerable lady of the "Old Gazette," and aroused the warlike propensities of the Napoleon of the Journal. These ably conducted, highly respectable, and very influential organs of Whiggery, are
