(Daily Enterprise copy.) But, of all diseases, who is not most anxious to escape a disease of the Lunga! The very idea of falling a victim to Consumption, sends a tremor to the heart-strings of life. But, oh! how joyous the thought that LIFE and HEALTH is still our own, when just before, Despair had spread herdark canvass over us.

Sach, kind reader, are the pleasurable sensations experienced by hundreds, whe, by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, have this dire disease slowly, but surely, driven from their system—and health, rosy health, again restored to their languishing bodies.

Beware of connerfelts and base imitations.
