BY TELEGRAPH. Reported Expressly for the Daily Morning Post BRORIVED BY LIGHTNING-PRINTED BY STRAM.

Boston, April 17. We were yesterday visited by a severe storm and gole. The wharves are overflowed, and the cellars of the Custom House stores, on Long Wharf, are completely inundated, and the destruction of candles..... property thereby is immense. The flats at East and outh Boston are covered with water. The rails, in a number of places on the House onje Railroad, have been washed away with the mbankmente. e Thirack of the Worcester Bailroad was under mined hevond the dam. The Eastern Railroad was ilso badly washed in many places. The new Episcopal Church is so seriously dan iged that it will have to be rebuilt. Miscellaneous.

The steeple of the Baptist Church, at Charleston has been blown down. It fell on Theo. Lock, who was passing at the time, killing him instantly. A schooner is reported to have been wrecked or Chelses beach, and all on board are supposed to have perished. It is impossible at this time to give in estimate of the loss, but it is very heavy. A riot has taken place between the Orangemen and Catholics, at Remfrew county, Canada West, owing to the appointment of Mr. Wm. Harris, former editor of the Bytown Packet, to be Crown Land A gent. There was some blood shed. The Boston authorities have refused the use Faneiul Hall for Mr. Webster to address the citizens.

MEXICAN AWARDS.

Washington, April 17.

The Republic of this morning contains a list of the awards of the Commissioners of the Mexican Claims. The whole number of memorials presented was 272. The number rejected as insufficient and the aggregate of all the awards is 33,203,620, and the aggregate of all the awards is 33,203,620, leaving the sum of $46,477 to be paid back to the Mexican government.

In the meantime I may state that some of the large awards are as follows:

Lewis J, Hargous, $53,682; Dr. Gardiner, $322, 000; Union Land Company, Texas, $68,899; Gallers and copious night weats.
