For nominating candidates for SUPREME BENCH, on 11 11th of Jane, 1851, as fixed by the regular action of il Sketches of Onba.

We have the pleasure of announcing to o readers that our friend, P. C. SHANNON, Esq., who spent the past winter in Cuba, is now preparing s series of sketches of, that beautiful Island for the Morning Post. Mr. SHANNON is one of the most accomplished literary writers in the West, and we feel confident that the sketches he is now prepafing will add to his already exalted reputation as a writer.

No other Paper has the News! We learn that a Caucus Extraordinary was held at the editorial office of James W. Biddle, on Saturday evening, composed of the original signers and getters up of the Scott meeting, for the purpose of making arrangements for conducting the proceedings of the gathering of old Antimasons and Abolitionists which is to take place to-day at the New Court House. It is understood that the following plans will be carried out : 1. The meeting shall not be opened with pray-
