n this case there appeared to be no evidence that defendant had stolen the article; it was simply found in defendant's possession, who keeps a Grocery store on Smithfield street, and is in the habit of purchasing second-hand articles, and it was proven that this was so purchased by defendant's wife when he was absent. A number of witnesses were examined who testified to the good character of defendant. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Com. vs. Jacob Drake, for an assault and battery on Jas. Nicholson. Nicholson was sitting in his brother's house in January or February, when Drake came in and caught him by the throat and presented a pistol to him and said, "You are my rispner, d-n you." The parties struggled a while, and then defendant struck him, but upon the interference of third parties he showed a warrant for Nicholson's arrest. Defendant had been deputised by another Constable to make the arrest. David Fenwick testified that he had accompanied then drew a pistol-Bruce for Commonwealth and Black for defence.

charged. John Duffey, who has been con e, al charges of robbery, was called by the Commonwes, ith, and objected to by Mr. Irwin, on the ground of his being a convict and fugitive from justice from another S tate. There being no record to that effeet, Mr. Ir, vin desired that before examination in chief, he shou, d be put on his voir dire, and alluded to a case similar in some respects to the present one, which had bee, tried in the old court house, in 1839, in which Jua ee Baldwin, in trying it, had made the same objection, and it had been sustained. The objection was overrule d, the record being the proper evidence. John Duffey testified that on the Light of the 5th of January he went to McCutcheon's ho 'use; Johnone and McCutcheon were sitting there with a ball of wicking, pouring spicits of turpentine on it; he asked them what they were gaing to do, and they said glim a boated pile, and asked him if he would not go along; he said no; that he had no objection to do anything in the line of stealing, but that he wouldn't burn a man's property on his family; that it was too mean; that if he had a spite against a man, he would rather knock the side of his head the balls under the board pile and set fire to them; Johnson then saw him, and drew a pistol; but he being up to such matters, drew his bowie knife and pricked Johnson under the heart with it; just then Duffey's partner (Riley) knocked Johnson down, and was about to plunge a knife into him, but desisted, on the persuasions of Duffey, to let him live. Cross-Examined.—It was some five or ten min-utes after it was fired before the alarm was given; I told Johnson that he had fired the board pile, and It told Johnson that he bad fired the board pile, and that it was mean; it was then that he drew the pistol on me. I became acquainted with McCutcheon on Christmas night, just when I landed in the city; some of the Pittsburgh boys wanted to put me through, and he saved me from a whipping. My name is John Duffey; I don't say on my oath that this is my name, for I have one for every day in the week and three for Sunday; McCutcheon asked mo to go with them to burn the board pile; that we could make three or four gold watches, and possibly saveral hundred dollars. No one induced me to saveral hundred dollars. No one induced me to make this information, but any one who would burn a man's property I want to see convicted. Henry Johnson, sworn.—On the 5th of January, about 2 o'clock, McCutcheon and myself were in about 2 o'clock, McCutcheon and myself were in the basement of his house, soaking balls of wicking in turpentine; Duffey and another came in and asked us what we were doing; McCutcheon said we were going to glim a board pile; we started, and left Duffey and his partner at the house; when we got to the board pile he put the balls under it and I watched; saw Duffey, and told McCutcheon, who said to shoot him, that dead men tell no tales; I drew the pistol for that purpose and McCutcheon drow his knife, but Duffey also drew a knife and placed it to my breast, when his partner knocked me down and was going to stab me, but Duffey said me down, and was going to stab me, but Duffey said let him live. We all then went back to the fire togother; a great many persons having assembled by that time, we didn't fear suspicion. I was introduced to McCutcheon by Duffey, who said that I. was a regular sharper, therefore with such a recom-mendation from such a person, any proposition could be made to me with safety. THE TRUE VERSION OF THE JENNY LIND AFFAIR. -Mr. Joseph F. D. Caton, the young gentleman who accompanied Jenny Lind from Masonic Hall, has made a statement to the Editor of the America can of the whole affair connected with her flight, in which he says that it is altogether untrue that any indecent language was used to Miss Lind by the crowd, or that they, in any way, attempted to in sult her. Mr. Stewart, the agent, and Mr. Cating made an exploration, and found, that by taking a board of the fence, they could get out that way. Mr. Stewart gave a man $5 to take the board off, and Miss Lind, accompanied by Mr. C. and the agent, came out that way; but when they came to the fence, several persons came up to Mr. Stewart. each claiming to be the one to whom he had promjsed the $5. INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE.

Dr. Win. Y Barks, of Xenia, Ohio, a lightly respectable Druggist in that delightful village, has informed us that the sale of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is unparalleled. The demand for it is so great that he can scarcely keen himself supplied with it. He has had in his store medicines for lung affections. Some of these were esteemed good and some gave temporary relief.

HEREDITARY CONSUMPTION!

Cured by Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

PLEASANT RIDES, Hamilton co. O. Sep. 27, 1850.

J. D. Park—Dear Sir. I take the liberty of advising you of the benefit that I have derived from the use o. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry was prostrated by that terrible scorrege, Consumption, in May last. The sitnet was truly horniying to me, for the of my family, (my brothers and sisters) had died of Constemption. I was afflicted with nearly all of the worst features of the disease. I had a distressing cough and expectorated a great deal of blood, hectic fever, severe pains in the side and chest, cold chills, alternating with flushes of heat and copious night sweats

I was under the care of a skilled physician from the time I was taken sick until about six weeks since, being then about helpleas, and my friends considering my case toppeless, or at least beyond the reach of our physician's skill, advised the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

skill advised the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

I have taken four bottles of the medicine, and now consider myself perfectly well. I make this statement to induce others that are afflicted as I have been, to make trial of Wistar's Isalsam of Wild Cherry, which remedy has, under the blessing of Providence, restored my health.

I GROWN POINT, Lake co, ila. June 15, 1849.

J. D. Park—Dear Sir: As I have a deep commisseration for the afflicted, permit me to give you a brief history of my afflictions, and the benefits derived from the use of 'Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In July 1844, I was attacked with a fever of a typhoid character, which left me in a very debilitated state, when in the following winter I was taken with a severe cold, which reduced me to such an extent as to give me the appearance of a confirmed consumptive. I labored under a severe cough, expectorated a great deal, and was troubled with cold feet und night aweats. I also frequently raised blood from my lungs. I continued in this state, gradually sinking under the disease, until January, 1847, until I was again attacked with fever. My extremities, especially my feet, were constantly cold, and almost lost their feeling. Under these circumstances it may be truly said that I was a living skeleton. I finally determined to quit taking medicine prescribed by physicians and rry Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and from the first week that I commenced taking it can date a gradual recovery. I continued its hese six months, at the end of which time I was curred, and have enjoyed good health ever since, and cheerfully recommend the Balsam to all those afflicted with diseases of the lungs, and would say to those commencing its nee not to be discouraged, if two or three bottles do not enewed health as persevere no. I have done, and I have no doubt but nine cases out of ten will be blessed with renewed health as have been.

Spansoristic, Ky., May 14, 1265.

Messrs. Sauford & Park: I take this opportunity of informing you of a most remarkable cure performed on me by the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

In the year 1840 I was taken with the inflammation of the bowels, which I labored under for six weeks, when I gradually recovered. In this fall of 1841 was attacked with a severe cold, which seated itself upon my lungs, and for the space of three years I was confined to my bed. I tried all kinds of medicines and every variety of aid without benefit; and thus I wearied along until the winter of 1845, when I heard of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

My friends persuaded me to give it a trial, though I had given up all hopes of recovery, and had prepared myself for the change of another world. Through their solicitations I was induced to make use of the genuine Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

After five years of affliction and sufering, and after having spent four or five hundred dollars to no purpose, and the best and most respectable physicians had proved unavailing. I was soon restored to entire health by the blessing of God rest upon the proprietors of so valuable a medicine as Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
