THE MORNING POST has a larger circulation than an subscription paper published in Pittsburgh. To business men traffords in excellent medium for Advertising and being the only Democratic paper issued in Alleghe ay county, it goes into the hands of a class of reader teached by no other paper. Advertisers will be goo enough to bear this in mind. It is our intention to clothe the Morning Post a handsome new dress, at the beginning of the new volume in July. We are determined to make it in all respects the best and finest looking paper west f Philadelphia. The BREVIER and Minion type used at presen setting reading matter is offered for sale, possess sion to be given about the middle of July. The price of the Brevier will be 20 cts. a pound, and the Minion 15 cts. a pound—cash or approved en dorsed paper. An Obiginal Tale .- We have received from ou correspondent, Miss MARGARET K. The Latest Fashion for Ladies. Mrs. Bloomer, who edits the Lily in an interio town of New York, thus describes her apparel: Our costume is as yet by no means perfected there is a lack of barmony in the dress we now wear, which is nothing different from the reigning fashion except that our skirts have been robbed of about a foot of their former length, and a pair of loose trowsers of the same material as the dress substituted. These latter extend from the waist to the ankle, and may be gathered into a band and buttoned round the ankle, or, what we think pret dded nearly napog as of some one depth, and left sufficiently wide for the foot to pass of some one depth, and left sufficiently wide for the foot to pass profits per annum. Purchase of the Powelton Estate by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Pennsylvania Railroad Company.

We have great satisfaction in announcing that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has purchased the fine property known as the Powelton Estate," on the west bank of the Schuylkill, with the intention of using it for a depot, workshops and all other purposes connected with the business of agreatrailroad. We learn that the purchase was made by Charles Henry Fisher, Esq., for the Company on Saturday last. The property contains ninety-stiree acres and was purchased for $250,000, ground rent, redeemable after two years.

The wisdom of this purchase is evident on a momen's reflection. The future wants of a great railroad cannot always be estimated, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have exhibited more foresthought, in making this liberal provision for their future requirements, than has ever before been shown by such corporations. They could not in the thickly built parts of the city, obtain any situation likely to meet their propose when their business shall have increased, as it is certain to do in a few years. In

NOW EXHIBITING. AT NO. 65 MARKET STREET, (ONE BOOR FROM FOURTH.)

Circassian Model of Beauty!
(Full Size of Life.)
THIS incomparable production has been invariably the surprise and admiration of every one whe has n it; the beautiful moulded form, TEEMING WITH NATURES LOVELINESS, Appears to stand before the spectator so truly like, that it requires a close inspection to realize 1 to WONDERFUL PERFECTION To which painting can be brought, completely de-civing the most practised eye. This wonderful effect s produced by the judicious arrangement of light, and he artist's superiority of talent in giving roundity to a the artist's superiority of talent in giving towards plain surface.

With regard to the delicacy of the subject, the Proprietor begs to say, that there is an air of chastity is the attitude and expression of the figure, tanding to vicek even the most volaptuous imagination; to the pure, all is purity; and "Hons soit que mal y genss" shoul sapply to others.

As a Californian Speculation, it would realize AN IMMENSE FORTUNE.
