Dischanged—The Grand Jury were yesterday discharged, having finished all the business.—They have acted on about 270 bills. The court thanked them for the rapidity with which they had discharged their duty. To-night Mrs. Barney Williams' Benefit comes off at the Theatre. All friends of the comic style of acting should avail themselves of this opportunity of having a hearty laugh. The Mayor yesterday committed Linsey Lewis, a colored man, in default of $20 fine for breach of the Peace. Jenkins, the insane boy, has been captured, and replaced in the Poor House. Auction Sales. PEAL ESTATE AT AUCTION—On Saturday, June 14th, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, will be sold on the premises, adjoining the 7th Ward School House, and second and the residence of Wm. Arthur, Esq. two lots of ground, each from ing 25 feet on Granville street, and extending back 13cetal inches to 20 foot alley. On one of the Lots there is a good Dwelling House; an excellent well of pure spring water is on the property.

Terms—Carl, part and S.

Terms—Carl, part and S. against no one but Horn.

Adolph Schmidt, sworn.—Saw a little fuss, went to where it was and saw Fink and Horn, and asked what was the matter; Horn said that Fink had held his foot when he was dancing; Horn wanted Fink to go out and fight, and called him a d—d son of a b—h. In a short time Riddle and Horn had it. Riddle was struck, but didn't see who hit him; he said Horn hit him; see who done it. Saw Crist. Och when being lead home; he was badly cut. The throwing of the stones lasted about 15 minutes.

Jno. Steinberg, sworn—Saw Horn and Fink fight; the latter didn't want to fight; there was a crowd then got out on the Minersville road and stoned each other; didn't see any of the defendants here in the riot; saw Kane afterwards; didn't think he had anything to do with it; don't know how the general melee commenced.

A number of other witnesses were examined, whose evidence was merely corroborative. The court adjourned before the examination was concluded.
