A RAILROAD TO STEUBENVILLE. We are pleased to learn that a bold and decided movement is about to be made between this city and Steubenville, with the view of supplying this link in the great Railroad chain from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh to Columbus, Cincinnati and St. Louis. A meeting of the incorporators will be held on Thursday next at the half way house, on the Steubenville turnpike, when Capt. CHARLES NAYLOR, of this city, will be present, and submit some important facts to the consideration of the meeting. The farmers of Washington and Allegheny counties are determined that this Road shall be built without delay; and many of our enterprising citizens have promised their money and their influence to assist in pushing the project forward to final completion.

The Harrisburgh American, one of the most unscrupulous Federal papers in the State, quotes an article from the Blairsville Apalachian, finding fault with the resolutions of the Reading Convention, and publishes it under the following nead. "Another Bolter from the Reading Pla knowledge, it has not supported the nominations of our party for the last five years. It supported Van Buren and Adams for President and Vice heavy business this season, and with a prompt-President, during the last Presidential campaign, ness and dispatch heretofore almost unpreceand has been known since then as a Free Soil or | dented in the history of its operations. Its ca-Abolition print. The present Editor, Mr. Mar- pacity for business has of late been materially THIAS, is a very worthy young gentleman, and to be right; but it is unfair for the Federal papers to quote his remarks as evidence of disaffection in the Democratic ranks. The nominations made by the Reading Convention give universal satisfaction to the Democracy of Pennsylvania, and Messrs Righer and Chover will be elected by the largest majorities given in the the other the mountain division of the Pennsyl-State for the last fifteen years. The "Reading Platform" is broad, strong, and national; and will hold all honest and true Democrats, as well as several thousand patriotic Whigs who cannot consistently vote for such a political trimmer as

WM. F. JOHNSTON.

We cannot too earnestly urge upon our Democratic brethren of this county, and throughout the State, remarkes the Carlisle Volunteer, the necessity of a complete organization. The Federalists are actively engaged in marshalling their ter. The large one will be worked from the two pect that the most desperate and reckless means will be resorted to, for the purpose of carrying out their pernicious doctrines. Deception, falsehood, pipe laying, fraud, bribery and corruption will again be resorted to by our Federal opponents. How important, therefore, is it that the Democratic party should organize for the contest, and be prepared to meet and effectually repel the many Federal slanders put in circulation by the adherents of Governor Johnston? Every county, township, town, and village in the State, should form DEMOCRATIC CLUBS, for the purpose of disseminating correct principles mongst the people of the State, and thus overthrow the false statement put in circulation by our opponents. This is no time for procrastination-we must cast aside our luke-warmness at faithfully, zealously, and effectually. Will you not, each and every one of you, assist not only by your vote but by your influence and hearty and efficient support, to redeem this pledge, and to swell the Democratic army to numbers that will afford even a greater majority for our candidates? We believe and trust you will.-Let each Democratin Pennsylvania determine to make one more vote besides his own for the Democratic ticket-let each one feel it incumbent upon himself to convince and convert his luke-warm or deceived friend or neighbor of his error—let him be convinced by argument, facts, and documentary evidence that the cause of Democracy is the cause of the people—that of Democracy is the cause of the people—that by its perpetuity only, can the people of this memories and compromises, and the country must, in future, look to the Democratic party, as Union expect prosperity and happiness. PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE. This handsome and important highway is rap lly improving. From Diamond street to Logan street, the city authorities are laying down gas pipes, while at the other end of the Avenue from Oakland to Barker's corner, beyond East Liberty, the Turnpike Company are constructing a Plank Road in the most substantial and improved mode—unlike other Plank Roads in this eighborhood, which have only eight foot tracks nd no clay road, this one has a track sixteen eet wide, and a good summer road on each side orming altogether a most safe, convenient, an pleasant road. A project is in contemplation for improving the Avenue still further, by opening it by a direct cut into Fifth street, at the corner of Ross. Should this succeed (and it is the interest of the whole city that it should), Fifth street and Pennsylvania Avenue will form but one street. The Rail Road will not touch upon any part this route, which will therefore always be ree from the inconvenience and dangers experi enced on streets in the vicinity of a Rail Road nor will the travel on it be subjected to the delays incident to a road leading to extensive cem eteries. We have heard that two of our enter prising citizens have lately purchased from N B. CRAIG, Esq., a tract of land just beyond Oakland, and are about to divide it into town lots, and it is said that a large Hotel is to be soon rected, and also a fine building for a Female Academy.

Being the nearest, most level, and best made oad to the beautiful valley of East Liberty, Pennsylvania Avenue must soon become a great horoughfare for business, as well as the most leasant and fashionable drive from the city. * Westmoreland Democratic Primary We are indebted to a friend for the following returns from Westmoreland county. One was the State letting for the avoidance of the incline planes on the western end of the Portage Road, and vania Railroad. There is a great deal of very heavy work on this division of their Road, and with the greatest force of hands that can be worked to advantage, some of the sections will require nearly three years for their completion. With the exception of the large tunnel, the old contractors were generally the successful bidders. There are two tunnels on this division of the Road—the large one is about two miles from this place, and is 3600 feet long-the small one, near Jefferson, is about 600 feet in length. Mr. Rutter & Son, of New York, are the contractors for the former one, and Ritner & Shaffer for the latends, and by three shafts, so as to hasten its heaviest sections, which is situated at the western end of the large tunnel, was alloted to the Messrs. Harrisburgh."
I am exceedingly sorry that any body thinks it their duty to press a nomination on me. From a very early day and uniformily, I have declared my purpose not to be a candidate, and last February published that purpose to the world, in the correspondence which I placed in your hands. I have favored the nomination of Judge Kidder, in correspondence and conversation, and have trusted that any local claims which might be recognized, would be satisfied in his person.— My strong desire now is that he should be nominated, and if any difficulty exists which you cannot surmount, I very much prefer that you should give up our local claims and shall not nom-The condition and demands of my family for-

t. That what I had written, I would stand to tingency contemplated in that letter, I would run. Along with such replies, I have urged Judge Kidder's nomination by every considera tion I could press.

What more can I say now? I supposed when that public letter was written, that there was an end of my connection with that subject. Had I anticipated some things that have occur-red since, I should have avoided the hypothetical expression that has kept the subject open. I regret the use of it, but "what is writ, is writ."

There I stand just where I planted myself in that letter. I can't be guilty of the weakness of unsaying it. If the nomination is given me, against the strong expressions of that letter-against my constant protestations-against your and Mr. Nicholson's representations, and against the wishes of other personal friends in the Con-vention—I must consider it as given in the contingency contemplated in that letter, and, therefore, I cannot say that I will decline it. Hence my remark to you when I handed you the letter and my telegraphic despatch, that it is as positive a declination as I am at liberty to make.

Let me hope that we shall all he gratified in the nomination of Judge Kidder, and that no occasion will exist for resorting to so unwilling Your friend and humble servant GEO. W. WOODWARD.

SUMMIT, CAMBRIA COUNTY, Pa. Col. J. W. FORNEY-Dear Sir :- I arrived home last evening from the Reading Convention; and although, in common with the other unsuc-cessful candidates for the office of Canal Commissioner, I naturally feel a little disappointed I sincerely rejoice, however, that the Convention have selected for this important office my friend Gen. Seth Clover, a radical Democrat, consistant and unwavering in his devotion to the men and measures of the Democratic party, and in every respect a worthy and competent gentleman.

The nominees of that Convention shall receive my cordial support, and my feeble exertions shall be used to do all that a man can do honorably, to consummate the glorious victory that awaits the Democracy at the ensuing October

To my friends who so generously supported m in that Convention. I return my hearts and assure them that the kindness and friendship manifested by them towards me shall no be forgotton as long as gratitude retains a breath-ing place within my hears, and it will be the most pleasing duty in my life to perform if at some future day I can in any manner do them good

Mr. Adam Beck, of South Strabane, lost about Mr. Adam Beck, of South Strabane, lost about fifty; and about a week since, Mr. John Moore, of Mt. Pleasant, lost about one hundred. We know not how this evil can be remedied; unless it be to kill all dogs that are suspected of fondness for mutton; and even then the damage may be done in many instances before suspicion arises. One had dog will lead a whole neighborses. One had dog will lead a man-hood of his canine acquaintances astray, and it nood of his cannot acquaintances astray, and he is quite impossible to reform a dog after he has manifested a disposition to prey upon sheep—therefore, all such dogs should be killed immediately.—Wash (Pa.) Character of the English. Irish Looking at the population of the three king-doms, it may easily be preceived that there is a considerable difference amongst them with respect to temperament. The Irish are gay, ar dent; the Scotch are comparatively cool, steady and cautious; the English are, perhaps, a fair average between the two. I remember it was not inelegantly observed by a friend of mine that an Englishman thinks and speaks; a Scotch man thinks twice before he speaks; and an Irishman speaks before he thinks. A lady pres ent added, "A Scotchman thinks with his head an Irishman with his heart." This allusion t impulse, operating more rapidly than delibera-tion, is a king to Miss Edgeworth's remark, the an Irshman may err with his head, never with his heart; the truth, however, being, that he "obeys" his heart, not always waiting for the dictates of his head. If Mr. W. B. Sloan—Dear Sir:—Some fiften years ago one of my feet was severely injured, in consequence of the foot swelling very large, and being remarkably painful, most of the time I could on y hobble about with the axistance of a staff, and not being able to endure a shoe on, the foot I were a moceason. During the first fourteen years suffering, I followed, strictly, the advice of many velebrated physicians—last year, used fourteen bottless of Dr. Trask's Magnetic Olintment—ult, however, falled to saford permanent relief. Last November I concluded to have the frot taken of—to which my friends objected. Finally, about the first of December, I was induced to spiply your Wonderful Ontiment, and in less than thirty days after the first application, I laid aside my staff, put on my shoes without any inconvenience, and now get about like other men.

II Hints to Parents .-- One great source discuse in children is the unkealthiness of parents! It would be just as reasonable to expect a rich crop from a barren soil, as that strong and healthy children should be born of parents whose constitutions have been worn out with intemperance and disease. A sickly frame may be originally induced by hardships, accidents, or intemperance, but chiefly by the latter. It is impossible that a course of vice or impradence should not spoil the best constitution; and did the evil terminate here, it would be a just punishment for the folly of the transgressor. But not so. For when once a disease is contracted, and through neglect in applying the proper means it becomes ect in applying the proper means it become not so. For when once a disease is contracted, and through neglect in applying the proper means it becomes rivited in the habit, it is then entailed upon posterity.—Female constitutions are as capable of improvement as family estates—and ye who would wish to improve, not only your own health, but that of your own ofspring, by eradicating the many distressing diseases that are entailed through neglect or imprudence, lose no time in purifying the blood and cleansing the system. Matried persons, and those about to be married, should not fail to purify their blood, for how many diseases are transmitted to prosterity. How often do we see Scalds. Scrofula and a thousand other afflictions, transmitted to the rising generation, that might have been prevented by this timely precaution? To accomplish which, there is nothing before the public, or the whole world, so effectual as Dr. BULL'S LATEST IMPROVED FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, combining Yellow Dock and Burdock, with the pure and genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla. For general debility during this warm weather, it acts like a charm, restoring clashicity of muscle and vigor, with sprightliness of intellect.
