[] Hints to Parents, -- One great source of disease in children is the unbealthiness of parents! It would be just as reasonable to expect a rich crop from a barren soil, as that strong and healthy children should be ore of parents whose constitutions have been worn out with intemperance and disease. A sickly frame may he originally induced by hardships, accidents, or intem-porance, but chiefly by the latter. It is impossible that a course of vice or imprudence should not spoil the best constitution; and did the evil terminate here, it would be a just punishment for the folly of the transgressor. But into iso.
