From common whiting, sulpheric acid and water, he obtains carbon in the gaseous state; and with the power exerted by this gas, he asserts that he now drives a 25-horse engine, and for one-fortieth the expense of steam, lifts and lets fall 12,000 pounds five times in a minute. This fluid without any heat applied at all, exerts a pressure of 540 pounds to the square inch, while water in the same unheated state has no pressure but that of gravity. Water, heated to the boiling point, yields a power of fifteen pounds. This fluid, with the same leat, would yield a power of nearly 12,000 pounds! And what is more, a handful of charcoal, and a boiler the size of a tea-kettle, will produce, at an expense of a few cents, the whole of this tremendous energy!—Fifty dollars expense in carbon would carry one of the Collins steamers from New York to Liverpool.

"I deem the Cherry Pictorial an admirable composition from some of the best articles in the Materia Medica, and a very effective remedy for the class of diseases it is intended to cure."

New Haven, Ct., Nov. I, 1849.

Major Pattison, President of the S. C. Senate, states he has used the Cherry Pictoral with wonderful success, to cure an inflamation of the lungs.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell—Dear-Sir: 1 am now constantly using your Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and prefer it to any other medicine for pulmonary complaints. From observations of many severe cases, I am convinced it will cane coughs, colds, and diseases of the lungs, that have put to defance all other remedies.

Invariably recommend its use in case of consumption, and consider it much the best remedy known for that disease.

Respectfully yours.

CLINTON FURNACE; June 2, 1851.—S. M. KIER:

Dear Sir—This may cerdiy that one of my boys has been afflicted for the last thirteen years with a bealing and deafness of the right ear. I have tried a number of physicians, all without any benefit, and had given up all hope, of a cure ever being effected, when our family physician, after examining the case, recommended me to use the PETROLEUM, which I did, and am happy to inform you that the use of two bottles effected an entire cure. I write this without solicitation or your acquaint ance. With sentiments of esterm, I am yours truly, jy?

which gives immediate relief by renewing the foundation of health and strength, the blood. It neutralizes had humors, stops unnatural secretions, and gives healthy action to all the vital powers.

Let all who wish to purge the blood from the impurities contracted from the free indulgence of the appetite during the winter, and to prepare the system to resist summer epidemics, resort now to "Dr. Guysolt's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla," which is proving itself an antidote for many of the most malignant diseases that flesh is heir to, and they will never be disappointed; for in this remedy the public faith has never wavered—never can waver; for it is founded on experience, lust as their want of faith in other and sparious compounds is also founded on experience. They fly from mineral nostrums to seek hope, life, and vigor from this purely vegetable remedy; therefore, however, broken down in health and spirits, however, loathsome to himself and others, let no one despair of recovery; let the patient only understand that his hope of physical restoration lies only in Guysout's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and persuade him, for his life's sake, to tryit, and we have no hesitation in predicting his speedy restoration to health.
