Targe for sail-bu Wattreed of Depty Hang There is another class of land pirates, who prey on the rights of women. New York, and Broadway in particular, is completely infested by them in fine weather, for these fowls of fine by them in fine weather, for these lowis of time is feathers can't breast a storm; you may see them on the steps of the Astar, the Howard, the Franklin, and every other hotel where drone bees do congregate. There they stand, planted like the Mandarins in the show-window of a tea-shop. If you have time and patience to stand shop. If you have time and patience to stand by St. Paul's, you may count some scores of these automatons, passing and repassing fifty times, between Leonard and Rector streets, in the course of three hours. They generally hook
