About two hours, out of the stomach.
SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE!

Baron Lizza, infulsical Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastrie Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the calf, in which vavious articles of food, as meant and eggs, will be solsoftoned, changed and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Dr. PREREAL this famous treaties on "Pood and Diet," published by Fowlers & Wells, New York, page 35, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are tew higher authorities than Dr.
Pereira.

Dr. Comes, in his valumble writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a dimination of the due Preferra.

Dr. Cosme, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastric Juicers a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Displeguia?" and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in Loudon, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, fading everything else to (ail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomach of living animals, which proved completely ancessful."

The Gashall subor of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the duid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial digestion of them in no-wise different from the infinited digestive from the model of the complete of the min no-wise different from the infinited digestive for the did the artificial digestive food as the complete of the min no-wise inferent from the infinited digestive food is dissolved as rupidly in an artificial digestive finid prepared from Pepsin, as it is in the natural Gastric Juice, obtained from the living human stomach and from animals, are well known. "In all cases." he says, 'disection occurred as perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions."

AB A DYSPRPSIA CURER,

Dr. Hovorrows preparation of PEPSIN has produced the most marvelous effects, caring cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervona Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the very verge of the grave. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement—but authenticated certificates have been given of more than TWO HUNDRED REMARK-ABLE CURES, in Philadelphia, New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cares were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great NERVOUS ANTIDOTE, and particularly useful for tendency to bilious disorder, Liver Complaint, Fever and Ague, or badly treated Fever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quiniue, Mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It also recastle thealth with Intemperance.
