Although the building has a fine appearance, Anthony into the fulling has a line appearance, and standing as it does on an elevated position in the city, will be well lighted and ventilated. The work was designed by Mr. J. W. Kerr, architect, and executed by Mr. J. H. McCleland, master builder. The building is now under roof. The Lecture room will be ready for occupancy on the 1st of October, and the whole will be completed by the 1st of April. The Church was organized by the Ohio Presbytery, in August, 1850, with 16 members, and now numbers 50 communicants. The officiating Pastor is Rev. DANIEL MCKIN.

LEY, D. D. This is a missionary work within the bounds of the Presbytery, and an effort is now being made to complete the enterprise and furnish this feeble congregation a sanctuary of worship, free from debt.
