A with the Patenties of this new and valuable invention for the manufacture and sale of the article in the West, they having been thanninatured heretofore exclusively in the East, where they are superseding the use of wooden coffins, take this method of informing the public, that they are now manufacturing eighteen different sizes of the modern Sarcophagus, varying in lengthfrom 22 inchre to 04 feet, with width and depth suitable for bodies of ordinary size, and for those who desire space for cashloning, or for bodies of unusual dimensions, have several sizes deeper and wider This invention no several sizes deeper and wider This invention now coming into general use, is pronounced one of the greatest of the age. These Evalat Casts are composed of various kinds of metals, but principally of iron.

They are thoroughly manufied inside and out, and thus made impervious to air and indestructible. They They are thoroughly snawded inside and out, and thus made impervious to air and indestructible. They are highly ornamental, and of a classic form, are light and portable, while they combine the greatest strength which metal is capable of, in a given quantity

When properly accured with cement they are perfectly art tight, and free from exhalation of offensive gases. They cost no more than good wooden coffins, and are better than any other article in use, (of whatever cost, for tramportation, vaults, or ordinary interments, as has been proven by actual experiments, and certified to by some of our most scientific men; also, by the Honorables Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, Lewis Cass, and other distinguished Senators who have witnessed their merits, and whose letters, together with other evidences of their worth, may be seen at our Agents' Burial Case Depot, No. 374 Main street, three doors above Ninsh, where we intend to keep on hand at all times, such a stock of all sizes and degrees of orbanent and finish as will suit the most diversified tastes.

We invite the stentinon of the public, and of undertakers particularly throughout the west, to an examination of the article, and request them not to rety upon the representations of indertakers ubstualing this article, whose interest it would be to misrepresent them.

Whatever others may say about their medicines, the Petroleum is the greatiest Remedy of the age. Plysicians of high standing in the profession are beginning to use it in their practice. Those who at first looked on with doubt and uncertainty, are willing to award it due praise and consideration. Before another year rolls round, all will be compelled to acknowledge that the Petroleum is the greatest medicine ever discovered.
