Irwin, of the Seventh Ward: John Covle. of the Eighth Ward; and Joseph Weeks, of the Ninth Ward. The members are requested to be punctual in their attendance.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

We propose, this morning, to offer a few paragraphs in relation to what our contemporary of the Gazette is pleased to term a "rich" Message and a "great" Message, -- ironically, we presume. Great it certainly is, in extent of verbiage ; and it may be thought rich in the number of subjects adverted to : but in conceptions and ideas it is one of the most mesgre productions that has ever expedition. been offered to the People of our country. We look in vain for a single idea, that may not be the great and good Louis Kossveri, the revolufound in any respectably conducted newspaper during the last six months ; and, so far as it respects subjects calculated to awaken thought, and all other countries of Europe, with the fixed, these are spoken of in a manner no more exalted and plainly expressed desire and design again to than that of our party newspapers,-the exact visit Hungary and contend against Austrian desideas of a portion of which are reflected in this potism; and notwithstanding Spanish subjects, Message.
