KOSSUTH AT NEW YORK. New York, Dec.
The city has been full of excitement from dawn of day, in consequence of the preparation to receive the illustrious Kossuth. He landed a astle Garden about 1 o'clock, where he wa received and welcomed by Mayor Kings Kossuth replied in a speech of great eloquence. The procession is to move at 2 o'clock. The city saluted by the forts and boats of every class, and by artillery on the shore and on the hills every RECEPTION OF KOSSUTH. NEW YORK, Dec. 6

The day was beautiful, and the reception mag-There were not less than 200,000 per nificent. There wer sons in the streets. In coming up on the Bay on the steamer Van-derbitt Kossuth expressed his delight at every thing he saw. The steamer passed up the North and down the East rivers, and back. The shipping, forts, heights and steamers were decorated with flags, and salutes were fired from the forts, batteries, and ships of war, while the air was filled with the shouts of the multitude. The ship of war North Carolina fired a national salute as the steamer passed. It was responded to with cheers, and a salute from the steamers. The Williamsburg and Brooklyn piers on the route were filled with people, and greeted the steamer with salutes. The military were down upon the Battery, and in the background there were not less than 100,000 spectators. Kossuth, in at tempting to speak in reply to the Mayor's cordial welcome, after proceeding a few minutes, found it impossible to go on, in consequence of the confusion, and desisted, promising his notes to the press. The procession moved up Broadway. The streets were filled with people, and the buildcovered with flags, streamers, and mottoes; and Kossuth, as the procession passed, was everywhere greeted with the waving of handker-chiefs and cheers by the multitude. The procession was three hours in passing.— By 6 o'clock all was over and quiet.

Three hundred German musicians serenade south this evening.

almost hopeless case.

In the winter of 1850, I was attacked with a severe pain, which was gradually extending through the whols right side and leg; at the same time, a total prostration of my physical system; also, my leg had shrunk to shout two-thirds of its common size. I progured the attack

My. John D. Park-Dear Sir: I am out of your 'Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry," and "Dr. Guyzon's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla." Please forward a supply immediately—
Your Baisam of Wild Cherry worked to a charm here,—not a bottle failed of affording immediate relief, and in every instance but one. (an old gentleman of I.Y. years of ago, it curred, and the 'Vellow Dock has done equally as well. I took three bottles myself, last fall, and emjoyed perfect health last winter, for the first winter for eleven years, being troubled with a severe coupling of the skin, which laid me up from two weeks to four months every winter and spring, until last winter.

Henry E. Jones, a brother merchant and a particular friend of mine, took two bottles of the Yellow Dock for a Storfalous Eruption, which has worked an entire curs.

My store is lat the corner of Wisconsin Avenue and Walnut street. Yours, respectfully.

New Haven, C., Nov. 1, 1849.

Major Pattison, President of the S. C. Schate, states he has used the Cherry Pictoral with wonderful success, to cure an inflamation of the lungs.

From one of the first physicians in Malna.

Saco, Me., April 23, 1849.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell—Dear Sir: I am now constantly using your Cherry Pectoral in my practice, and prefer it to any other medicine for pulmonary complaints. From observations of many severe cases, I am convince ed it will cure coughs, colds, and diseases of the langs, that have put to defiance all other remedies:

Invariably recommend its use in case of consumption, and consider it much the best reliedly known for that disease.

Respectfully yours.
