5 octaves, with double sett of reeds, made by the original laventors, Carhardt and Needham, Now York. This Instrument is equal in point of power and volume to any small organ, and far preferable to it for sweetness of tonic, capacity to stand in tune and facility for transporting. These instruments are made expressly for church use, and owing to the lowness of price are fast superseding the organs. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine this fine Melodecan previous to its leaving the subscriber's wareroom, it having been purchased by a congregation in this city.
