DEMOCRATIC TICKET
FOR THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
JAMES BUCHANAN
OF PENNSYLVANIA
FOR VICE PRESIDENT
OF ALABAMA

TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF PENNSYLVANIA
A Democratic State Convention will be held at Harrisburg, Pa., on Saturday, the 12th inst., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of Governor, and also for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of Lieutenant Governor, and also for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of Secretary of the State.

A meeting of the Democratic City Committee of Harrisburg was held on the 10th inst., when, on motion, it was resolved, That the Democrats of the First Ward hold their primary meeting at the Napoleon Hotel, west side of the Market.

Both Mr. FINLAYSON and his intimate associates and advisers have shown, in their recent course towards the great Hungarian leader, that they are utterly indifferent to the cause of Freedom in Europe; that they are influenced by considerations of fear lest Russia and Austria may take offense at the honors paid to him; or that they have changed their views of Kossuth, and that they are now in sympathy with the Emperor.

Our Federal administration would seem to have been exceedingly anxious, less than a year ago, to secure the release from exile, and the return to this country, of the great Hungarian patriot. So anxious were they, indeed, to do so, that they acted in advance of any authority by Congress, so far as to send a despatch to our minister at Constantinople, intimating that they would be glad to grant permission for the Hungarian, then imprisoned within the dominions of the Sublime Porte, to remove to this country.

President Grant authorized the Secretary of State to issue a passport to the great Hungarian patriot, and to permit him to travel through the United States. The officers of this Government influenced by considerations merely personal to the exiles; or who are influenced by the same considerations, are the only ones who are to be blamed for the delay in the release of the great Hungarian patriot.

It is a well known fact, that the great Hungarian patriot, when he was in the hands of the Emperor, was treated with the most honorable consideration. He was allowed to travel through the United States, and to visit the various States, and to hold public meetings, and to deliver lectures, and to receive the most honorable attention.

THE PENNSYLVANIAN.

From the number of this valuable journal bearing date on the 8th inst., we learn that the editorial concerning it, of our excellent friend Col. Fox, has been, for a time at least, this is owing to the fact that his mind is so much occupied with the duties of his office as Chief of the House of Representatives at Washington. Col. Fox, however, to do all which may be in his power to aid in making the paper as useful as it has ever been; and his readers will therefore, be assured, be favored with occasional contributions from his ready and powerful pen. Rejoicing as we do in his success at Washington, we very sorely that he must temporarily leave to the Democracy of the State, as a one of its volunteer recruits in our most active skirmishes.

The future management of the Pennsylvania will be in the hands of WILLIAM W. McKEAN, Esq., who has been associated with Col. Fox for many years, and who has had considerable experience as an editor, and is a writer of very refined taste and discrimination, and a very uncompromising Democrat. We cannot fail to wish our old friend McKEAN, success in his new position, and we know that he will be ever on the watch against the enemies of the Democratic cause, which is the cause of our country, — the cause of the People of the earth.

The following is a feeling of some verses on the lamented fate of Franz Haver, one of Germany's noblest demagogues. The first appeared in a Swiss paper, and were copied by the editor of the "Kochelache Zeitung," which is published at Leoben near Trieste, on Sept. 18th. He was born in Cologne in 1810 — where his grey-haired father is still living. After a varied career of law, teaching and writing, he was engaged in the hands of a merchant and druggist in Cologne, and, as such, overcame a wealthy lady of that city, only to be overwhelmed with disappointment and despair — another lightning bolt from the clouds of adversity, which finally returned to his native land — in 1848, he fled to France, and was employed in his struggle for freedom — was captured in 1849 at Stuttgart and Frankfurt, escaped the clutches of the Reaction, was in his absence in England, and was finally expelled from Cologne, and, at length, determined to settle at Leoben near Trieste, where he had purchased an estate. Neither he would have, on the 15th of September, but, unfortunately, he was shot dead by a bullet from a Prussian soldier who had been ordered to shoot him.

Scrabblings and Clippings.

General Wabash, who has served more than fifty years in the United States Army, is to be promoted to the rank of Major-General. He is now in his 80th year. He entered the United States Army in 1805, and has since that time served in various campaigns. He is a most distinguished and brave soldier.

A new "star appraiser" has been made in the State of New York. The appraiser is a man of great ability and integrity, and is well qualified for the position. He will be in charge of the appraisals of the State's property.

The new canal of Tennessee will be one of the most magnificent buildings of the kind in the United States. It will be a great benefit to the State, and will greatly increase the commerce of the region. It is a most important and valuable project.

The celebration of California gold is as much a matter of congratulation in California as it is here. The gold has been discovered in great quantities, and is a great benefit to the State. It is a most important and valuable discovery.

The Imperial Geographical Society of Berlin has been organized. The society is a most important and valuable institution, and will greatly increase the knowledge of the world. It is a most important and valuable project.
