Mr. John D. Park—Dear Sir: It is with uninterable feelings of gratinude that I am able; through the Divine from the excellent medicine, "Guyzou's Yellow Deak and Sarsaparilla," to give you a few symptoms of my almost hopeless case.

In the winter of 1850, I was stracked with a severe pain, which was gradually extending through the whole right side and leg; at the same time, a total postration of my physical system; also, my leg had abrunk to about two-hirds of its common size. I procured the airmidence of a skillul practitioner, who pronounced my disease one of the worst forms of liver complaint. He said my case was one not easily handled; but prescribed for me. I remained under his treatment until I was saits field he conid not help me. I then precured of your agent at this place, W. A. Beers, two bottles of Guyzou's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, from which I received a wast amount of hencht. After having taken four bottles more, I was able to pursue my hundress without any inconvenience, and have been since that fine a well man, while bott a short time since I was confined to my beak and Sarsaparilla, from which I received a low inconvenience, and have been since that fine a well man, while four his of the time; and I cannot seribe the return of my health to any other cause than by the agency of that truly valuable, medicine, Guyzou mittee on printing.
