weather, yesterday, was quite warm, with indi-cations of rain. We learn by a telegraphic despatch, that the Tennessee river was rising at Eastport, Saturday. The steamers Huntwille and Cherokee were receiving full cargoes of cotton at Eastport for New Orleans.

The new steamer Delaware, Capt. Baker, arrived at the wharf from Cincinnati, yesterday. She is of mammoth dimensions, with but very little cabin room on her, and was built for the Mississippi river trade. She can carry 1,000 tons of freight. The Delaware went over the falls yesterday

She had a drove of 102 horses on board, belonging to the government, for New Orleans. The and sent down to Portland. "THE SATURDAY MORNING POST," issued this SERIOUS ILLNESS OF HON. DANIEL KILGORE. By a telegraphic dispatch received yesterday, by Mr. C. H. Paulson, from New York, we are greatly pained to learn that the Hon. Daniel Kilgore, President of the Steubenville and Indiana Railroad, was lying very low in that city, and was not expected to live till evening.

ANNEXATION QUESTION .- In pursuance of notice, the citizens of Manchester met at the Public School Honse, on the 11th inst., and organized by calling Dr. John Callahan to the Chair, and appointing Robert King Secretary. The call of the meeting having been read, the following resolution, offered by William B. Ross, was unanimously adopted :

Resolved. That we disapprove of the conduct of our Burgess and Council, in endeavoring to effect the annexation of this Borough to the city of Allegheny, in the manner and on the terms which they have neceded to believing it to be an injudicious and unwise course of legislation, from which no good can result to the borough of

THE KOSSUTH BANQUET.

The Kossuth banquet at the Irving House las night, was an event of great interest. Kossul spoke over three hours, in a strain of eloquence and power, fully stating the grounds of the claim of Hungary, and appealed to the American People not only for sympathy and the sid of public opinion in Hungary's behalf, but asking eans, also, both by contributions and loan His speech occupies about eight columns. In the course of it he mentioned the fact of a generous gift of one thousand dollars to the caus of Hungary, by W. Smeade, of Cincinnati, and it is also stated that Horace Greely has also con tributed a thousand. It is now proposed by the friends of Hungary, to organize committees under the direction of Kossuth, to receive subscripions to a Hungarian national loan of a hundr dollars or over; and also for small amounts
