THE WEATHER.—This is a fruitful subject for editors to write about, when they have nothing else to talk about. But the present state of the weather is decidedly interesting, and affords a good subject. If we did not suppose that our readers fully appreciated it, we would write a most feeling article on the anbject, for we have felt its nfluence most sensibly. Zero got so low below. the freezing point, that it was absolutely beneath our notice; but of one thing we are fully convinced, that it is extremely cold.

In the winter of 1850, I was attacked with a severe pain, which was gradually extending through the whole right side and leg; if the same time, a total presuration of myphysical system; also, my leg had abrunk to shoot two-thirds of its common hize. I procured the attendance of a shiftil practitioner, who pronounced my discase one of the worst forms of liver complaint. He said my case was often of fasily handled, but prescribed for me. I remained under his treatment mult I was satisfied he could not help me. I then procured of your agent at this place, W. A.
