Kossuth's Family-His Mother Among the many noble women who immo ized themselves in connection with the War of Liberation in Hungary, was the Baroness V

Beck. Throughout the contest, she proved one of the ablest emissaries of the revolutionary, government : now penetrating in disguise to the ourt of Vienna and into the very Palace o Schwartzenburg; and now entering the camp of Simovich and Windischgratz, measuring the means, and ascertaining the instructions of the imperial generals. Her, exertions in the good cause were not confined to diplomacy. In the ball room and the ballefield she appeared equally at home; equally useful as well as orne mental; and her services were warmly acknow.
