TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 23, 1903

Mr. Waddell's Lecture.—The first lecture of the geological series at the Young Men's Library Association, was delivered last evening, and we cannot say more in praise than that all present were more than satisfied. Mr. Waddell is a lecturer of the highest order, and his lectures are so interesting that they are almost invariably well attended. The only complaint that could reasonably be made, might have been that the Association, which was that the room was not sufficiently large for the number who wished to be present. Waddell's wish to be sure, really crowded, and those who wish to go early, will find it difficult to get in. The lecture will be on the Life and Character of Martin Luther.

A New Classical Academy.—We learn that the Rev. J. M. Goswami contemplates opening a classical academy, for the summer for boys and girls, on the eastern side of the city, on the first Monday in January next, in the mansion formerly occupied by Major John B. Butler, in the 17th ward of the city. The want of such an institution has long been felt here, and many of our children from home for education must be sent to the city. We hope the project of Mr. Goswami will succeed. The situation of the Academy is very desirable, and the projected building is a fine one. It is projected to be carried on by such an institution, will be admitted by every one who has the pleasure of his acquaintance.

Kunkel's Opera Shows, in their performance at the Masonic Hall last night, gave great satisfaction. They performed with great success, and their performance of the opera, "The Old Sixty," as sung by Geo. Kunkel, is one of the most effective ballads that we ever heard. It is, indeed, a gem. The National Quartette, was a perfect gem. In short, all the performances were in the highest degree amusing, and the harmonies were all perfect.

The Union Actors.—We are pleased to learn that this new candidate for public favor at a meeting with all the success that its most sanguine friends expect. Its editor, R. D. Harris, is a gentleman of talents, taste and industry, and his publication was very much needed in this community. It is a weekly paper, and is devoted to Agriculture, Horticulture and Mechanics.

Sheridan Hotel For Rent.—It will be seen by an advertisement in today's paper, that the magnificent new Hotel recently erected by our enterprising townsmen, Allen Brown, at the corner of Chestnut and Broadway, is a perfect gem. It is a fine building, and is a perfect gem. It is a fine building, and is a perfect gem. It is a fine building, and is a perfect gem.

Hove's Coronation.—This is the season for coronets, coats, and harnesses, etc. To all who suffer from any of the above maladies, we recommend a stick of Hove's Coronation. It is a perfect gem, and is a perfect gem. It is a fine building, and is a perfect gem.

We hope the public will not forget that through the kindness of the gentlemanly proprietor of the Panorama of California, the proceeds of this evening's entertainment will be given for the benefit of the Mercy Hospital.

Blackwood's Magazine.—The numerous readers and admirers of this old and popular Magazine, will find the December number, at W. C. Lewis, 100 Broadway, a perfect gem. It is a fine building, and is a perfect gem.

A Large lot of splendid illustrated Books, Annals and Standard Authors, will be sold at Davis' Commercial Sales Rooms, to-morrow evening, at 9 o'clock.

This evening the great sale of Christmas presents and decorations, on account of our late arrival of goods, will be given for the benefit of the Mercy Hospital.

The Boston Express.—This is a new work, just from the press of Capt. Mayne Bell. It is for sale at the store of Mr. W. C. Wall, Fourth street.

Fresh Oysters received daily by Adams Express, at the Waverley House, Diamond Alley.
